(Act No. 42 of 1970)

AN ACT

Further to amend the Income-tax Act, 1961, the Wealth-tax Act, 1957, the Gift-tax Act, 1958 and the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964.

BE It enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 1970.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the provisions of this Act shall come into force on the 1st day of April, 1971.

CHAPTER II AMENDMENTS TO THE INCOME-TAX ACT, 1961

2. Amendment of section 2.—In section 2 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961) (hereinafter referred to as the Income-tax Act), in clause (1),—

(i) for sub-clause (a), the following sub-clause shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, substituted, namely:—

“(a) any rent or revenue derived from land which is situated in India and is used for agricultural purposes;”;

(ii) in sub-clause (c), for the proviso, the following proviso shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, substituted, namely:—

“Provided that—

(i) the building is on or in the immediate vicinity of the land, and is a building which the receiver of the rent or revenue or the cultivator, or the receiver of rent-in-kind, by reason of his connection with the land, requires as a dwelling house, or as a store-house, or other out-building, and

(ii) the land is either assessed to land revenue in India or is subject to a local rate assessed and collected by officers of the Government as such or where the land is not so assessed to land revenue or subject to a local rate, it is not situated—

(A) in any area which is comprised within the jurisdiction of a municipality (whether known as a municipality, municipal corporation, notified area committee, town area committee, town committee or by any other name or a cantonment board and which has a population of not less than ten thousand according to the last preceding census of which the relevant figures have been published before the first day of the previous year; or

(B) in any area within such distance, not being more than eight kilometres, from the local limits of any municipality or cantonment board referred to in item (A), as the Central Government may, having regard to the extent of, and scope for, urbanisation of that area and other relevant considerations, specify in this behalf by notification in the Official Gazette;”.

3. Amendment of section 10.—In section 10 of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) In clause (2); before the words “any sum received”, the words, brackets and figures “subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 64”, shall be inserted;

(b) for clause (5), the following clause shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, substituted, namely:—

“(5) subject to such conditions as the Central Government may prescribe, in the case of an individual being a citizen of India,—

(i) in relation to any assessment year not being an assessment year commencing after the 1st day of April, 1970, the value of any travel concession or assistance received by or due to such individual,—

(a) from his employer for himself, his spouse and children, in connection with his proceeding on leave to his home-district in India;

(b) from his employer or former employer for himself, his spouse and children, in connection with his proceeding to his home-district in India after retirement from service or after the termination of his service;

(ii) in relation to any other assessment year the value of any travel concession or assistance received by or due to such individual,—

(a) from his employer for himself, his spouse and children, in connection with his proceeding on leave to any place in India;

(b) from his employer or former employer for himself, his spouse and children, in connection with his proceeding to any place in India after retirement from service or after the termination of his service:

Provided that the amount exempt under item (a) or item (b) of this sub-clause shall in no case exceed the value of the travel concession or assistance which would have been received by or due to the individual in connection with his proceeding to his home-district in India on leave or, as the case may be, after retirement from service or after the termination of his service;”;

(c) in clause (6),

(i) for sub-clause (i), the following sub-clause shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, substituted, namely:—

“(i) subject to such conditions as the Central Government may prescribe, passage moneys, or the value of any free or concessional passage received by or due to such individual—

(a) from his employer for himself, his spouse and children, in connection with his proceeding on home leave out of India;

(b) from his employer or former employer for himself, his spouse and children, in connection with his proceeding to his home country out of India after retirement from service in India or after the termination of such service;”;

(ii) in sub-clause (vii)—

(A) after the words “as a technician in the employment”, the brackets, words, figures and letters “(commencing from a date before the 1st day of April, 1971)” shall be inserted;

(B) in the Explanation, for the word “Technician”, the words “For the purposes of this sub-clause, “technician” shall be substituted;

(iii) after sub-clause (vii), the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(viii) where such individual renders services as a technician in the employment (commencing from a date after the 31st day of March, 1971), of the Government or of a local authority or of any corporation set up under any special law or of any such institution or body established in India for carrying on scientific research as is approved for the purposes of this sub-clause by the prescribed authority or in any business carried on in India and the following conditions are fulfilled, namely, that—

(1) the individual was not resident in India in any of the four financial years immediately preceding the financial year in which he arrived in India, and

(2) the contract of his service in India is approved by the Central Government, the application for such approval having been made to that Government before the commencement of such service or within six months of such commencement, the remuneration for such services due to or received by him, which is chargeable under the head “Salaries”, to the extent mentioned below, namely:—

(A) such remuneration due to or received by him during the period of twenty four months commencing from the date of his arrival in India, in so far as such remuneration does not exceed an amount calculated at the rate of four thousand rupees per month, and where the tax on the excess, if any, of such remuneration for the period aforesaid over the amount so calculated is paid to the Central Government by the employer (which tax, in the case of an employer, being a company, may be paid notwithstanding anything contained in section 200 of the Companies Act, 1956) (1 of 1956), also the tax so paid by the employer; and

(B) where he continues, with the approval of the Central Government obtained before the 1st day of October of the relevant assessment-year, to remain in employment in India after the expiry of the period of twenty-four months aforesaid and the tax on his income chargeable under the head “Salaries” is paid to the Central Government by the employer (which tax, in the case of an employer, being a company, may be paid notwithstanding anything contained in section 200 of the Companies Act, 1956), (1 of 1956), the tax so paid by the employer for a period not exceeding twenty-four months next following the expiry of the first mentioned twenty-four months.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-clause, “technician” means a person having specified knowledge and experience in—

(i) constructional or manufacturing operations, or in mining or in the generation of electricity or any other form of power, or

(ii) agriculture, animal husbandry, dairy farming, deep sea fishing or ship building, who is employed in India in a capacity in which such specialised knowledge and experience are actually utilised;”;

(d) in clause (26), the words “who is not in the service of Government,” shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, omitted;

(e) after clause (29), the following clause shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1969, namely:—

“(30) in the case of an assessee who carries on the business of growing and manufacturing tea in India, the amount of any subsidy received from or through the Tea Board under any such scheme for replantation or replacement of tea bushes as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify;

Provided that the assessee furnishes to the Income-tax Officer, along with his return of income for the assessment year concerned or within such further time as the Income-tax Officer may allow, a certificate from the Tea Board as to the amount of such subsidy paid to the assessee during the previous year.

Explanation.—In this clause, “Tea Board” means the Tea Board established under section 4 of the Tea Act, 1953 (29 of 1953)”.

4. Amendment of section 23.—In section 23 of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), for the second proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided further that the annual value as determined under this sub-section shall,—

(a) in the case of a building comprising one or more residential units, the erection of which is begun after the 1st day of April, 1961 and completed before the 1st day of April, 1970 for a period of three years from the date of completion of the building, be reduced by a sum equal to the aggregate of—

(i) in respect of any residential unit whose annual value as so determined does not exceed six hundred rupees, the amount of such annual value;

(ii) in respect of any residential unit whose annual value as so determined exceeds six hundred rupees, an amount of six hundred rupees;

(b) in the case of a building comprising one or more residential units, the erection of which is begun after the 1st day of April, 1961 and completed after the 31st day of March, 1970, for a period of

- five years from the date of completion of the building, be reduced by a sum equal to the aggregate of—
- (i) in respect of any residential unit whose annual value as so determined does not exceed one thousand two hundred rupees, the amount of such annual value;
 - (ii) in respect of any residential unit whose annual value as so determined exceeds one thousand two hundred rupees, an amount of one thousand two hundred rupees, so, however, that the income in respect of any residential unit referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) is in no case a loss.”;

(b) for sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) Where the property consists of one or more houses and such house or houses is or are in the occupation of the owner for the purposes of his own residence, the annual value of such house or where there are two such houses, the annual value of each such house or where there are more than two such houses, the annual value of two of such houses (which the assessee may, at his option, specify in this behalf) shall first be determined in the same manner as if the property had been let and further be reduced, in each case, by one-half of the amount so determined or one thousand eight hundred rupees, whichever is less:

Provided that where the sum so arrived at exceeds ten per cent of the total income of the owner (the total income for this purpose being computed without including therein any income from such property and before making any deduction under Chapter VIA), the excess shall be disregarded.

Explanation 1.—Where any such residential unit as is referred to in the second proviso to sub-section (1) is in the occupation of the owner for the purposes of his own residence, nothing contained in that proviso shall apply in computing the annual value of that residential unit.

Explanation 2.—Where any such property as is referred to in this sub-section consists of more than two houses, the annual value of the houses other than those the annual value of which is required to be determined under this sub-section shall be determined under sub-section (1) as if such houses had been let.”.

5. Amendment of section 32.—In section 32 of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) after sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(A) Where the business or profession is carried on in a building not owned by the assessee but in respect of which the assessee holds a lease or other right of occupancy and any capital expenditure is incurred by the assessee for the purposes of the business or profession after the 31st day of March, 1970 on the construction of any structure or doing of any work in or in relation to, and by way of renovation or extension of, or improvement to, the building, then, in respect of depreciation of such structure or work, the following deductions shall, subject to the provisions of section 34, be allowed—

- (i) such percentage on the written down value of the structure or work as may in any case or class of cases be prescribed;

- (ii) in the case of any such structure or work which is sold, discarded, demolished, destroyed or is surrendered as a result of the determination of the lease or other right of occupancy in respect of the building in the previous year (other than the previous year in which it is constructed or done) the amount by which the moneys payable in respect of such structure or work together with the amount of scrap value, if any, fall short of the written down value thereof:

Provided that such deficiency is actually written off in the books of the assessee.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause,—

(i) “moneys payable”, in respect of any structure or work, includes—

- (a) any insurance or compensation moneys payable in respect thereof;
- (b) where the structure or work is sold, the price for which it is sold; and

(ii) “sold” shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Explanation to clause (iii) of sub-section (1).”;.

(b) in sub-section (2), after the words, brackets and figure “of sub-section (1)”, the words, brackets, figures and letter “or under clause (i) of sub-section (1A)” shall be inserted.

6. Amendment of section 34.—In section 34 of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), after the words, brackets and figure “in sub-section (1)”, the words, brackets, figure and letter “or sub-section (1A)” shall be inserted;

(b) in sub-section (2),—

(i) in clause (i),—

(A) after the words, brackets and figure “under sub-section (1)”, the words brackets, figure and letter “or sub-section (1A)” shall be inserted;

(B) for the words “plant or furniture”, the words “Plant, furniture, structure or work” shall be substituted;

(ii) after clause (ii), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(iii) nothing in clause (i) of sub-section (1A) of section 32 shall be deemed to authorise the allowance for any previous year of any sum in respect of any structure or work in or in relation to a building referred to in that sub-section which is sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed or is surrendered as a result of the determination of the lease or other right of occupancy in respect of the building in that year.”.

7. Amendment of section 35.—In section 35 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (iv) of sub-section (2), for the words, brackets and figures “sub-section (1) of section 32”, the words, brackets, figures and letter “sub-section (1) or under sub-section (1A) of section 32” shall be substituted.

8. Insertion of new sections 35D and 35E.—After section 35C of the Income-tax Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“35D. Amortisation of certain preliminary expenses.—(1) Where an assessee, being an Indian company or a person other than a company) who is resident in India, incurs, after the 31st day of March, 1970, any expenditure specified in sub-section (2),—

- (i) before the commencement of his business, or
- (ii) after the commencement of his business, in connection with the extension of his industrial undertaking or in connection with his setting up a new industrial unit, the assessee shall, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed a deduction of an amount equal to one-tenth of such expenditure for each of the ten successive previous years beginning with the previous year in which the business commences or, as the case may be, the previous year in which the extension of the industrial undertaking is completed or the new industrial unit commences production or operation:

(2) The expenditure referred to in sub-section (1) shall be the expenditure specified in any one or more of the following clauses, namely:—

- (a) expenditure in connection with—
 - (i) preparation of feasibility report;
 - (ii) preparation of project report;
 - (iii) conducting market survey or any other survey necessary for the business of the assessee;
 - (iv) engineering services relating to the business of the assessee;

Provided that the work in connection with the preparation of the feasibility report or the project report or the conducting of market survey or of any other survey or the engineering services referred to in this clause is carried out by the assessee himself or by a concern which is for the time being approved in this behalf by the Board;

- (b) legal charges for drafting any agreement between the assessee and any other person for any purpose relating to the setting up or conduct of the business of the assessee;
- (c) where the assessee is a company, also expenditure—
 - (i) by way of legal charges for drafting the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the company;
 - (ii) on printing of the Memorandum and Articles of Association;
 - (iii) by way of fees for registering the company under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956);
 - (iv) in connection with the issue, for public subscription, of shares in or debentures of the company, being underwriting commission, brokerage and charges for drafting, typing, printing and advertisement of the prospectus;
- (d) such other items of expenditure (not being expenditure eligible for any allowance or deduction under any other provision of this Act as may be prescribed).

(3) Where the aggregate amount of the expenditure referred to in sub-section (2) exceeds an amount calculated at two and one-half per cent. —

- (a) of the cost of the project, or
- (b) where the assessee is an Indian company, at the option of the company, of the capital employed in the business of the company, the excess shall be ignored for the purpose of computing the deduction allowable under sub-section (1).

Explanation.—In this sub-section—

(a) “cost of the project” means—

- (i) in a case referred to in clause (i) of sub-section (1), the actual cost of the fixed assets, being land, buildings, leaseholds, plant, machinery, furniture, fittings and railway sidings (including expenditure on development of land and buildings), which are shown in the books of the assessee as on the last day of the previous year in which the business of the assessee commences;
- (ii) in a case referred to in clause (ii) of sub-section (1), the actual cost of the fixed assets, being land, buildings, leaseholds, plant, machinery, furniture, fittings and railway sidings (including expenditure on development of land and buildings), which are shown in the books of the assessee as on the last day of the previous year in which the extension of the industrial undertaking is completed or, as the case may be, the new industrial unit commences production or operation, in so far as such fixed assets have been acquired or developed in connection with the extension of the industrial undertaking or the setting up of the new industrial unit of the assessee;

(b) “capital employed in the business of the company” means—

- (i) in a case referred to in clause (i) of sub-section (1), the aggregate of the issued share capital, debentures and long-term borrowings as on the last day of the previous year in which the business of the company commences;
- (ii) in a case referred to in clause (ii) of sub-section (1), the aggregate of the issued share capital, debentures and long-term borrowings as on the last day of the previous year in which the extension of the industrial undertaking is completed or, as the case may be, the new industrial unit commences production or operation in so far as such capital, debentures and long-term borrowings have been issued or obtained in connection with the extension of the industrial undertaking or the setting up of the new industrial unit of the company;

(c) “long-term borrowings” means—

- (i) any money borrowed by the company from Government or the Industrial Finance Corporation of India or the Industrial Credit and Investment Corporation of India or any other financial institution which is for the time being approved by the Central Government for the purposes of clause (viii) of sub-section (1) of section 36 or any banking institution (not being a financial institution referred to above), or
- (ii) any moneys borrowed or debt incurred by it in a foreign country in respect of the purchase outside India of capital plant and machinery, where the terms under which such moneys are borrowed or the debt is incurred provide for the repayment thereof during a period of not less than seven years.

(4) Where the assessee is a person other than a company or a co-operative society, no deduction shall be admissible under sub-section (1) unless the accounts of the assessee for the year or years in which the expenditure specified in sub-section (2) is incurred have been audited by an accountant as defined in the Explanation below

Sub-section (2) of section 288, and the assessee, along with his return of income for the first year in which the deduction under this section is claimed, the report of such audit in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by such accountant and setting forth such particulars as may be prescribed.

(5) Where the undertaking of an Indian company which is entitled to the deduction under sub-section (1) is transferred, before the expiry of the period of ten years specified in sub-section (1), to another Indian company in a scheme of amalgamation,—

(i) no deduction shall be admissible under sub-section (1) in the case of the amalgamating company for the previous year in which the amalgamation takes place; and

(ii) The provisions of this section shall, as far as may be, apply to the amalgamated company as they would have applied to the amalgamating company if the amalgamation had not taken place.

(6) Where a deduction under this section is claimed and allowed for any assessment year in respect of any expenditure specified in sub-section (2), the expenditure in respect of which deduction is so allowed shall not qualify for deduction under any other provision of this Act for the same or any other assessment year.

35E. Deduction of expenditure on prospecting etc., for certain minerals.—(1) Where an assessee, being an Indian company or a person (other than a company) who is resident in India, is engaged in any operations relating to prospecting for, or extraction or production of, any mineral and incurs, after the 31st day of March, 1970, any expenditure specified in sub-section (2), the assessee shall, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed for each one of the relevant previous years a deduction of an amount equal to one-tenth of the amount of such expenditure.

(2) The expenditure referred to in sub-section (1) is that incurred by the assessee after the date specified in that sub-section at any time during the year of commercial production and any one or more of the four years immediately preceding that year, wholly and exclusively on any operations relating to prospecting for any mineral or group of associated minerals specified in Part A or Part B, respectively, of the Seventh Schedule or on the development of a mine or other natural deposit of any such mineral or group of associated minerals:

Provided that there shall be excluded from such expenditure any portion thereof which is met directly or indirectly by any other person or authority and any sale, salvage, compensation or insurance moneys realised by the assessee in respect of any property or rights brought into existence as a result of the expenditure.

(3) Any expenditure—

(i) on the acquisition of the site of the source of any mineral or group of associated minerals referred to in sub-section (2) or of any rights in or over such site;

(ii) on the acquisition of the deposits of such mineral or group of associated minerals or of any rights in or over such deposits; or

(iii) of a capital nature, in respect of any building, machinery, plant or furniture for which allowance by way of depreciation is admissible under section 32, shall not be deemed to be expenditure incurred by the assessee for any of the purposes specified in sub-section (2).

(4) The deduction to be allowed under sub-section (1) for any relevant previous year shall be—

(a) an amount equal to one-tenth of the expenditure specified in sub-section (2) (such one-tenth being hereafter in this sub-section referred to as the instalment); or

(b) such amount as is sufficient to reduce to nil the income (as computed before making the deduction under this section) of that previous year arising from the commercial exploitation [whether or not such commercial exploitation is as a result of the operations or development referred to in sub-section (2)] of any time or other natural deposit of the mineral or any one or more of the minerals in a group of associated minerals as aforesaid in respect of which the expenditure was incurred, whichever amount is less:

Provided that the amount of the instalment relating to any relevant previous year, to the extent to which it remains unallowed, shall be carried forward and added to the instalment relating to the previous year next following and deemed to be part of that instalment, and so on, for succeeding previous years; so however, that no part of any instalment shall be carried forward beyond the tenth previous year as reckoned from the year of commercial production.

(5) For the purposes of this section,—

(a) “operation relating to prospecting” means any operation undertaken for the purpose of exploring, locating or proving deposits of any mineral, and includes any such operation which proves to be infructuous or abortive;

(b) “year of commercial production” means the previous year in which as a result of any operation relating to prospecting, commercial production of any mineral or any one or more of the minerals in a group of associated minerals specified in Part A or Part B, respectively, of the Seventh Schedule, commences;

(c) “relevant previous years” means the ten previous years beginning with the year of commercial production.

(6) Where the assessee is a person other than a company or a co-operative society, no deduction shall be the assessee admissible under sub-section (1) unless the accounts of the assessee for the year or years in which the expenditure specified in sub-section (2) is incurred have been audited by an accountant as defined in the Explanation, below sub-section (2) of section 288, and the assessee furnishes, along with his return of income for the first year in which the deduction under this section is claimed, the report of such audit in the prescribed form duly signed and verified by such accountant and setting forth such particulars as may be prescribed.

(7) Where the undertaking of an Indian company which is entitled to the deduction under sub-section (1) is transferred, before the expiry of the period of ten years specified in sub-section (1), to another Indian company in a scheme of amalgamation—

(i) no deduction shall be admissible under sub-section (1) in the case of the amalgamating company for the previous year in which the amalgamation takes place; and

(ii) the provisions of this section shall, as far as may be, apply to the amalgamated company as they would have applied to the amalgamating

company if the amalgamation had not taken place.

(8) Where a deduction under this section is claimed and allowed for any assessment year in respect of any expenditure specified in sub-section (2), the expenditure in respect of which deduction is so allowed shall not qualify for deduction under any other provision of this Act for the same or any other assessment year.

9. Amendment of section 38.—In section 38 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (2), for the words, brackets and figures "sub-section (1) of section 32", the words, brackets, figures and letter "sub-section (1) and sub-section (1A) of section 32" shall be substituted.

10. Amendment of section 40.—In section 40 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-clause (v) of clause (a), in the first proviso, for clause (d), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(d) any payment of tax referred to in sub-clause (vii) or sub-clause (viii) of clause (6) of section 10."

11. Amendment of section 41.—In section 41 of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2A) Where any structure or work in or in connection with a building being the structure or work referred to in sub-section (1A) of section 32 is sold, discarded, demolished, destroyed or is surrendered as a result of the determination of the lease or other right of occupancy in respect of the building and the moneys payable in respect of such structure or work together with the amount of scrap value, if any, exceed the written down value, so much of the excess as does not exceed the difference between the actual cost of the structure or work and its written down value shall be chargeable to income-tax as income of the business or profession of the previous year in which the money payable for the structure or work became due."

Explanation 1. Where the moneys payable in respect of the structure or work referred to in this sub-section become due in a previous year in which the business or profession for the purpose of which the structure or work was constructed or done is no longer in existence, the provisions of this sub-section shall apply as if the business or profession were in existence in that previous year.

Explanation 2. For the purposes of this sub-section, the expression "moneys payable" and the expression "sold" shall have the same meanings as in sub-section (1A) of section 32;

(b) in sub-section (5), after the word, brackets and figure "sub-section (2)", the word, brackets, figure and letter "sub-section (2A)", shall be inserted.

12. Amendment of section 43.—In section 43 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (1),—

(a) in Explanation 1, for the words, brackets and figures "sub-section (1) of section 32", the words, brackets, figures and letter "sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A) of section 32" shall be substituted;

(b) in Explanation 4, for the words, brackets and figures "sub-section (1) of section 32 or sub-section (2) of section 41", the words, brackets, figure and letter "sub-section (1), or clause (ii) of sub-section (1A), or section 32 or sub-section

(2) or sub-section (2A) of section 41" shall be substituted.

13. Amendment of section 55.—In section 55 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (a) of sub-section (1), for the words, brackets and figures "sub-section (1) of section 32 or sub-section (2) of section 41", the words, brackets, figures and letters "sub-section (1), or clause (ii) of sub-section (1A), of section 32 or sub-section (2) or sub-section (2A) of section 41" shall be substituted.

14. Amendment of section 57.—In section 57 of the Income-tax Act, in clause (ii), for the words, brackets and figures and letter "sub-sections (1), (1A) and (2) of section 32" shall be substituted.

15. Amendment of section 59.—In section 59 of the Income-tax Act, before the Explanation, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(3) Where any structure or work referred to in sub-section (1A) of section 32 in or in relation to a building to which clause (iii) of sub-section (2) of section 56 applies is sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed or is surrendered as a result of the determination of the lease or other right of occupancy in respect of the building, the provisions of sub-section (2A) of section 41 shall apply, so far as may be, in computing the income of an assessee under section 56 as they apply in computing the income of an assessee under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession".

16. Amendment of section 64.—Section 64 of the Income-tax Act shall be re-numbered as sub-section (1) of that section, and after sub-section (1) as so re-numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2) Where, in the case of an individual being a member of a Hindu undivided family, any property having been the separate property of the individuals has, at any time after the 31st day of December, 1969, been converted by the individual into property belonging to the family through the act of impressing such separate property with the character of property belonging to the family or throwing it into the common stock of the family (such property being hereinafter referred to as the converted property), then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, for the purpose of computation of the total income of the individual under this Act for any assessment year commencing on or after the 1st day of April, 1971,—

(a) the individual shall be deemed to have transferred the converted property, through the family, to the members of the family for being held by them jointly

(b) the income derived from the converted property or any part thereof, in so far as it is attributable to the interest of the individual in the property of the family, shall be deemed to arise to the individual and not to the family;

(c) the income derived from the converted property or any part thereof, in so far as it is attributable to the interest of the spouse or any minor son of the individual in the property of the family and where the converted property has been the subject matter of a partition (partial or total) amongst the members of the family, also the income derived from such converted property as is received by the spouse or minor son on partition shall be deemed to arise to the spouse or the minor son from assets transferred indirectly by the individual to the spouse or minor son and the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly:

Provided that the income referred to in clause (b) or clause (c) shall, on being included in the total income of the individual, be excluded from the total income of the family or, as the case may be, the spouse or minor son of the individual.

Explanation.—For the purposes of sub-section (2),—

- (1) "property" includes any interest in property, movable or immovable, the proceeds of sale thereof and any money or investment for the time being representing the proceeds of sale thereof and where the property is converted into any other property by any method, such other property;
- (2) "interest of the individual in the property of the family" and "interest of the spouse or any minor son of the individual in the property of the family" mean, respectively, the proportion in which the individual or, as the case may be, the spouse or minor son would be entitled to share the property of the family if there had been a total partition in the family as on the last day of the previous year of the family relevant to the assessment year for which the individual is to be assessed under sub-section (2).

17. Amendment of section 80A.—In section 80A of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (3), after the words, figures and letter "section 80L or", the words figures and letters "sec 80QQ or" shall be inserted.

18. Amendment of section 80B.—In section 80B of the Income-tax Act, in clause (5), the words and figures "and without applying the provisions of section 64" shall be, and shall be deemed to have been omitted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1968.

19. Amendment of section 80G.—In section 80G of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (4), for the proviso, the following proviso shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1968, namely:—

"Provided that where such aggregate includes any donations referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2) and such aggregate exceeds the limit of two hundred thousand rupees specified in this sub-section, then such limit shall be raised to cover that portion of the donations aforesaid which is equal to the difference between such aggregate and the said limit, so, however, that the limit so raised shall not exceed ten per cent of the assessee's gross total income as reduced as aforesaid, or five hundred thousand rupees, whichever is less."

20. Substitution of new section for section 80K.—For section 80K of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1968, namely:—

"80K. Deduction in respect of dividends attributable to profits and gains from new industrial undertakings or ships or hotel business.—Where the gross total income of an assessee, being—

- (a) the owner of any share or shares in a company, or
- (b) a person who is chargeable to tax under this Act on the income by way of dividends on any share or shares in a company owned by any other person, includes any income by way of dividends paid or deemed to have been paid by the company in respect of such share or shares, there shall, subject to any rules that may be made by the Board in this behalf, be allowed, in computing his total income, a deduction from such income by way of dividends of an amount equal to such part thereof as is attributable to the profits and gains derived by the company from an industrial undertaking or ship or the business of a hotel, on which no tax is payable by the company under this Act for any assessment year commencing prior to the 1st day of April, 1968, or in respect of which the company is entitled to a deduction under section 80J for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1968, or for any subsequent assessment year."

21. Insertion of new section 80QQ.—After section 80Q of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"80QQ. Deduction in respect of profits and gains from the business of publication of books.—(1)

Where in the case of an assessee the gross total income of the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1971, or to any one of the four assessment years next following that assessment year, includes any profits and gains derived from a business carried on in India of printing and publication of books or publication of books, there shall, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this section, be allowed, in computing the total income of the assessee, a deduction from such profits and gains of an amount equal to twenty per cent thereof.

(2) In a case where the assessee is entitled also to the deduction under section 80H or section 80J or section 80P, in relation to any part of the profits and gains referred to in sub-section (1), the deduction under sub-section (1) shall be allowed with reference to such profits and gains included in the gross total income as reduced by the deductions under sections 80H, 80J and 80P.

(3) For the purposes of this section "books" shall not include newspapers, journals, magazines, diaries, brochures, tracts, pamphlets and other publications of a similar nature, by whatever name called."

22. Substitution of new section for section 80U.—For section 80U of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"80U. Deduction in the case of totally blind or physically handicapped resident persons.—In computing total income of an individual, being a resident, who, as at the end of the previous year,—

- (i) is totally blind, or
 - (ii) is subject to or suffers from a permanent physical disability (other than blindness) which has the effect of reducing substantially his capacity to engage in a gainful employment or occupation,
- there shall be allowed a deduction of a sum of five thousand rupees:

Provided that such individual produces before the Income-tax Officer, in respect of the first assessment year for which deduction is claimed under this section,—

- (a) in a case referred to in clause (i), a certificate as to his total blindness from a registered medical practitioner being an oculist; and

- (b) in a case referred to in clause (ii), a certificate as to the permanent physical disability referred to in the said clause from a registered medical practitioner."

23. Amendment of section 89.—In section 89 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-sections (1) and (2), for the words "the Commissioner may, on an application made in this behalf by the assessee, grant such relief as he considers appropriate", the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"the Income-tax Officer shall on an application made to him in this behalf, grant such relief as may be prescribed".

24. Amendment of section 112A.—In section 112A of the Income-tax Act,—

- (a) for clauses (a) and (b), the following clauses shall be, and shall be deemed to have been substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1968, namely:—

"(a) the amount of income-tax payable on the total income as reduced by the amount of such inclusion, had the total income so reduced been his total income; plus

- (b) the amount of income-tax calculated on the amount of such interest included in the total income at the average rate of income-tax which would have been applicable to the total income if the amount of such interest and the amount of compensation or other payment referred to in clause (ii) of section 28 and of the capital gains, if any, had not formed part of it.";

- (b) Explanation 1 shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, omitted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1969.

25. Substitution of new section for section 119.—For section 119 of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"119. Instructions to subordinate authorities.—(1) The Board may, from time to time, issue such orders, instructions and directions to other income-tax authorities as it may deem fit for the proper administration of this Act, and such authorities and all other persons employed in the execution of this Act shall observe and follow such orders, instructions and directions of the Board:

Provided that no such orders, instructions or directions shall be issued:—

- (a) so as to require any income-tax authority to make a particular assessment or to dispose of a particular case in a particular manner; or
- (b) so as to interfere with the discretion of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner in the exercise of his appellate functions.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, —
- (a) the Board may, if it considers it necessary or expedient so to do, for the purpose of proper and efficient management of the work of assessment and collection of revenue, issue, from time to time (whether by way of relaxation of any of the provisions of sections 143, 144, 147, 148, 154, 155, 210, 271 and 273 or otherwise), general or special orders in respect of any class of incomes or class of cases, setting forth directions or instructions (not being prejudicial to assessee) as to the guidelines, principles or procedures to be followed by other income-tax authorities in the work relating to assessment or collection of revenue or the imposition of proceedings for the imposition of penalties and any such order may, if the Board is of opinion that it is necessary in the public interest so to do, be published and circulated in the prescribed manner for general information;

- (b) the Board may, if it considers it desirable or expedient so to do for avoiding genuine hardship in any case or class of cases, by general or special order, authorise the Commissioner or the Income-tax Officer to admit an application or claim for any exemption, deduction, refund or any other relief under this Act after the expiry of the period specified by or under this Act for making such application or claim and deal with the same on merits in accordance with law.

(3) Every Income-tax Officer employed in the execution of this Act shall observe and follow such instructions as may be issued to him for his guidance by the Director of Inspection or by the Commissioner or by the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner within whose jurisdiction he performs his functions."

26. Amendment of section 139.—In section 139 of the Income-tax Act,—

- (a) in sub-section (1), for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided that, on an application made in the prescribed manner, the Income-tax Officer may, in his discretion, extend the date for furnishing the return, and, notwithstanding that the date is so extended, interest shall be chargeable in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (8).";

- (b) sub-section (1A) shall be omitted;

- (c) in sub-section (2), for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided that, on an application made in the prescribed manner, the Income-tax Officer may, in his discretion, extend the date for furnishing the return, and, notwithstanding that the date for furnishing the return, whether fixed originally or on extension, falls beyond the 30th day of September, referred to in sub-section (8), interest shall be chargeable in accordance with the provisions of the said sub-section.";

- (d) in sub-section (3), after the words, brackets and figure "within the time allowed under sub-section (1)" the words "or within such further time which, on an application made in the prescribed manner, the Income-tax Officer may, in his discretion, allow" shall be inserted;

- (e) in sub-section (4), in clause (a), for the words, brackets and figures "and the provisions of clause (iii) of the proviso to sub-section (1) shall apply in every such case", the words, brackets and figure "and the provisions of sub-section (8) shall apply in every such case" shall be substituted;

- (f) for sub-section (8), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(8) (a) Where the return under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (5) for an assessment year is furnished after the 30th day of September of the assessment year, or is not furnished, then [whether or not the Income-tax Officer has extended the date for furnishing the return under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2)], the assessee shall be liable to pay simple interest at nine per cent per annum, reckoned from the 1st day of October of the assessment year to the date of the furnishing of the return or, where no return has been furnished, the date of completion of the assessment under section 144, on the amount of the tax payable on the total income as determined on regular assessment, as reduced by the advance tax, if any, paid and any tax deducted at source:

Provided that in the case of any person whose total income includes any income from business or profession, the previous year in respect of which expired after the 31st day of December of the year immediately preceding the assessment year, such interest shall be reckoned from the 1st day of January instead of the 1st day of October, of the assessment year:

Provided further that the Income-tax Officer may, in such cases and under such circumstances as may be prescribed, reduce or waive the interest payable by any person under this sub-section.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, where the assessee is a registered firm or an unregistered firm which has been assessed under clause (b) of section 183, the tax payable on the total income shall be the amount of tax which would have been payable if the firm had been assessed as an unregistered firm.

(b) Where as a result of an order under section 154 or section 155 or section 250 or section 254 or section 260 or section 262 section 264, the amount of tax on which interest was payable under this sub-section has been reduced, the interest shall be reduced accordingly, and the excess interest paid, if any, shall be refunded.”

27. Substitution of new section for section 140A.—For section 140A of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“140A. Self assessment.—(1) Where a return has been furnished under section 139 and the tax payable on the basis of that return as reduced by any tax already paid under any provision of this Act exceeds five hundred rupees, the assessee shall pay the tax so payable within thirty days of furnishing the return.

(2) After a regular assessment under section 143 or on 144 has been made any amount paid under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been paid towards such regular assessment.

(3) If any assessee fails to pay the tax or any part thereof in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) he shall unless a regular assessment under section 143 or section 144 has been made before the expiry of the thirty days referred to in that sub-section be liable by way of penalty to pay such amount as the Income-tax Officer may direct and in the case of a continuing failure such further amount or amounts as the Income-tax Officer may from time to time, direct so, however, that the total amount of penalty does not exceed fifty per cent of the amount of such tax or part as the case may be:

Provided that before levying any such penalty the assessee shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.”

28. Omission of section 141.—Section 141 of the Income-tax Act shall be omitted.

29. Amendment of section 141A.—In section 141A of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1) for the words “on the basis of such return accounts and documents” the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“after making such adjustments to the income or loss declared in the return as are required to be made under sub-section (2) with reference to such return accounts and documents, and for the purposes of the adjustments referred to in clause (iv) of sub-section (2) also with reference to the record of the assessments, if any, of past years:

Provided that in a case where the regular assessment is not made within six months from the date of receipt of the return, the Income-tax Officer shall proceed to make the provisional assessment under this section.”;

(b) for sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) In making any assessment under this section, the Income-tax Officer shall make the following adjustments to the income or loss declared in the return, that is to say, he shall—

(i) rectify any arithmetical errors in the return, accounts and documents referred to in sub-section (1);

(ii) allow any deduction, allowance or relief which, on the basis of the information available in such return, accounts and documents, is, prima facie, admissible, but is not claimed in the return;

(iii) disallow any deduction allowance or relief claimed in the return which, on the basis of the information available in such return, accounts and documents, is, prima facie, inadmissible;

(iv) give due effect to the allowance referred to in sub-section (2) of section 32, the deduction referred to in clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 33 or clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 33A or clause, (i) of sub-section (2) of section 35 or sub-section (1) of section 35A or sub-section (1) of section 35D or sub-section (1) of section 35E or the first proviso to clause (ix) of sub-section (1) of section 36, any loss carried forward under sub-section (1) of section 72 or sub-section (2) of section 73 or sub-section (1) of section 74 and the deficiency referred to in sub-section (3) of section 80J, as computed, in each case, in the regular assessment, if any, for the earlier assessment year or years.”

30. Substitution of new section for section 143.—For section 143 of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“143. Assessment.—(1) (a) Where a return has been made under section 139, the Income-tax Officer may, without requiring the presence of the assessee or the production by him of any evidence in support of the return, make an assessment of the total income or loss of the assessee after making such adjustments to the income or loss declared in the return as are required to be made under clause (b), with reference to the return and the accounts and documents, if any, accompanying it, and for the purposes of the adjustments referred to in sub-clause (iv) of clause (b), also with reference to the record of the assessments, if any, of past years, and determine the sum payable by the assessee or refundable to him on the basis of such assessment.

(b) In making an assessment of the total income or loss of the assessee under clause (a), the Income-tax Officer shall make the following adjustments to the income or loss declared in the return, that is to say, he shall,—

(i) rectify any arithmetical errors in the return, accounts and documents referred to in clause (a);

- (ii) allow any deduction, allowance or relief which, on the basis of the information available in such return, accounts and documents, is, prima facie, admissible, but is not claimed in the return;
- (iii) disallow any deduction, allowance or relief claimed in the return which, on the basis of the information available in such return, accounts and documents, is, prima facie, inadmissible;
- (ii) give due effect to the allowance referred to in sub-section (2) of section 32, the deduction referred to in clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 33 or clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 33A or clause (i) of sub-section (2) of section 35 or sub-section (1) of section 35A or sub-section (1) of section 35D or sub-section (1) of section 35E or the first proviso to clause (ix) of sub-section (1) of section 36, any loss carried forward under sub-section (1) of section 72 or sub-section (2) of section 73 or sub-section (1) of section 74 and the deficiency referred to in sub-section (3) of section 80J, as computed, in each case, in the regular assessment, if any, for the earlier assessment year or years.

(2) Where a return has been made under section 139, and—

- (a) an assessment having been made under sub-section (1), the assessee makes within one month from the date of service of the notice of demand issued in consequence of such assessment, an application to the Income-tax Officer objecting to the assessment, or
- (b) whether or not an assessment has been made under sub-section (1), the Income-tax Officer considers it necessary or expedient to verify the correctness and completeness of the return by requiring the presence of the assessee or the production of evidence in this behalf, the Income-tax Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice requiring him, on a date to be therein specified, either to attend at the Income-tax Officer's Office or to produce produce, or to cause to be there produced, any evidence on which the assessee may rely in support of the return:

Provided that, in a case where an assessment has been made under sub-section (1), the notice under this sub-section [except where such notice is in pursuance of an application by the assessee under clause (a)] shall not be issued by the Income-tax Officer unless the previous approval of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner has been obtained to the issue of such notice:

Provided further that in a case where the assessment made under sub-section (1) is objected to by the assessee by an application under clause (a), the assessee shall not be deemed to be in default in respect of the whole or any part of the amount of the tax demanded in pursuance of the assessment under that sub-section, which is disputed by the assessee, in so far as such amount does not relate to any adjustment referred to in sub-clause (i) or clause (b) sub-section (1), and further no interest shall be chargeable under sub-section (2) of section 220 in respect of such disputed amount.

(3) On the day specified in the notice issued under sub-section (2), or as soon afterwards and may be, after hearing such evidence as the assessee may produce and such other evidence as the Income-tax Officer may require on specified points, and after taking into account all relevant material which he has gathered,

- (a) in a case where no assessment has been made under sub-section (1), the Income-tax Officer shall, by an order in writing, make an assessment of the total income or loss of the assessee, and determine the sum payable by him or refundable to him on the basis of such assessment;

- (b) in a case where an assessment has been made under sub-section (1), if either such assessment has been objected to by the assessee by an application under clause (a) of sub-section (2) or the Income-tax Officer is of opinion that such assessment is incorrect, inadequate or incomplete in any material respect, the Income tax Officer shall, by an order in writing, make a fresh assessment of the total income or loss of the assessee, and determine the sum payable by him or refundable to him on the basis of such assessment.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

- (1) an assessment under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be incorrect, inadequate or incomplete in a material respect, if—
 - (a) the amount of the total income as determined under sub-section (1) is greater or smaller than the amount of the total income on which the assessee is properly chargeable under this Act, to tax; or
 - (b) the amount of the tax payable as determined under sub-section (1) is greater or smaller than the amount of the tax properly payable under this Act by the assessee; or
 - (c) the amount of any loss as determined under sub-section (1) is greater or smaller than the amount of the loss, if any, determinable under this Act on a proper computation; or
 - (d) the amount of any depreciation allowance, development rebate or any other allowance or deduction as determined under sub-section (1) is greater or smaller than the amount of the depreciation allowance, development-rebate or, as the case may be, other allowance or deduction properly allowable under this Act; or
 - (e) the amount of the refund as determined under sub-section (1) is greater or smaller than the amount of the refund, if any, due under this Act on a proper computation; or
 - (f) the status in which the assessee has been assessed under sub-section (1) is different from the status in which the assessee is properly assessable under this Act;

(2) "status" in relation to an assessee means the classification of the assessee as an individual a Hindu undivided family or any other category of persons referred to in clause (31) of section 2 and where the assessee is a firm its classification as a registered firm or an unregistered firm.

31. Amendment of section 153.—In section 153 of the Income-tax Act,—

- (a) after sub-section (2) the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), in relation to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1971, and any subsequent assessment year, an order of fresh assessment under section 146 or in pursuance of an order, under section 250, section 254, section 263, or section 264, setting aside or cancelling an assessment, may be made at any time before the expiry of two years from the end of the financial year in which the order under section

146 cancelling the assessment is passed by the Income-tax Officer or the order under section 250 or section 254 is received by the Commissioner or, as the case may be, the order under section 263 or section 264 is passed by the Commissioner.”;

- (b) in sub-section (3), after the words “assessments, reassessments and re-computations which may”, the words, brackets, figure and letter “subject to the provisions of sub-section (2A),” shall be inserted.

32. Amendment of section 183.—In section 183 of the Income-tax Act, for clause (b), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

- “(b) if, in his opinion, the aggregate amount of the tax payable by the firm if it were assessed as a registered firm and the tax payable by the partners individually if the firm were so assessed would be greater than the aggregate amount of the tax payable by the firm under clause (a) and the tax which would be payable by the partners individually, may proceed to make the assessment under sub-section (1) of section 182 as if the firm were a registered firm; and, where the procedure specified in this clause is applied to any unregistered firm, the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) of section 182 shall apply thereto as they apply in relation to a registered firm.”.

33. Amendment of section 184.—In section 184 of the Income-tax Act, in the proviso to sub-section (7), for clause (ii), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

- “(ii) the firm furnishes, before the expiry of the time allowed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 139 (whether fixed originally or on extension) for furnishing the return of income for such subsequent assessment year, a declaration to that effect, in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner, so, however, that where the Income-tax Officer is satisfied that the firm was prevented by sufficient cause from furnishing the declaration within the time so allowed, he may allow the firm to furnish the declaration at any time before the assessment is made.”.

34. Amendment of section 185.—In section 185 of the Income-tax Act,—

- (a) in sub-section (1), the following Explanation shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Explanation.—For the purposes of this section and section 186, a firm shall not be regarded as a genuine firm if any partner of the firm was, in relation to the whole or any part of his share in the income or property of the firm, at any time during the previous year, a benamidar of any other partner to whom the first-mentioned partner does not stand in the relationship of a spouse or minor child.”;

- (b) for sub-sections (2) and (3), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) Where the Income-tax Officer considers that the application for registration is not in order, he shall intimate the defect to the firm and give it an opportunity to rectify the defect in the application within a period of one month from the date of such intimation; and if the defect is not rectified within that period, the Income-tax Officer shall, by order in writing, reject the application.

- (3) Where the Income-tax Officer considers that the declaration furnished by a firm in pursuance of sub-section (7) of section 184 is not in order, he shall intimate the defect to the firm and give it an opportunity to rectify the defect in the declaration within a period of one month from the date of such intimation; and if the defect is not rectified within that period, the Income-tax Officer shall, by order in writing, declare that the registration granted to the firm shall not have effect for the relevant assessment year.”.

35. Amendment of section 209.—In section 209 of the Income-tax Act, for clause (d) and the Explanation at the end, the following clause and Explanation shall be substituted, namely:—

“(d) in cases where—

- (i) the total income of the latest previous year [being a year later than the previous year referred to in clause (a)] on the basis of which tax has been paid by the assessee under section 140A exceeds the total income referred to in clause (a), or
(ii) the Income-tax Officer makes an amended order referred to in sub-section (3) of section 210 on the basis of the total income on which tax has been paid by the assessee under section 140A, the total income referred to in clause (a) shall be substituted,—

- (1) in a case falling under sub-clause (i), by the total income on the basis of which tax has been paid under section 140A, and;
(2) in a case falling under sub-clause (ii), by the total income on the basis of which the amended order under sub-section (3) of section 210 is made.

Explanation.—If the assessee is a partner of a registered firm and an assessment of the firm has been completed for a previous year later than the latest previous year for which the assessee's assessment has been completed, his share in the income of the firm shall, for the purposes of clause (a), be included in his total income on the basis of the said assessment of the firm”.

36. Amendment of section 210.—In section 210 of the Income-tax Act, for sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

- “(3) If, after the making of an order by the Income-tax Officer under this section and at any time before the date which is fifteen days prior to the date on which the last instalment of advance tax is payable by the assessee under sub-section (1) of section 211, tax, is paid by the assessee under section 140A or a regular assessment of the assessee (or of the registered firm of which he is a partner) is made in respect of a previous year later than that referred to in the order of the Income-tax Officer, the Income-tax Officer may make an amended order requiring the assessee to pay in one instalment on the specified date or in equal instalments on the specified dates, of more than one, falling after the date of the amended order, the advance tax computed on the basis of the total income on which tax has been paid under section 140A or in respect of which the regular assessment aforesaid has been made as reduced by the amount if any, paid in accordance with the original order.”.

37. Amendment of section 215.—In section 215 of the Income-tax Act for sub-section (2) the following sub-section shall be substituted namely:—

- “(2) Where the date of completion of a regular assessment tax is paid by the assessee under section 140A or otherwise.—

- (i) interest shall be calculated in accordance with the foregoing provision upto the date on which the tax is so paid; and
- (ii) thereafter interest shall be calculated at the rate aforesaid on the amount by which the tax as so paid (in so far as it relates to income subject to advance tax) falls short of the assessed tax".

38. Amendment of section 221.—In section 221 of the Income-tax Act, for sub-section (1) the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

- "(1) When an assessee is in default or is deemed to be in default in making a payment of tax he shall in addition to the amount of the arrears and the amount of interest payable under sub-section (2) of section 220 be liable by way of penalty to pay such amount as the Income-tax Officer may direct and in the case of a continuing default such further amount or amounts as the Income-tax Officer may, from time to time, direct, so, however, that the total amount of penalty does not exceed the amount of tax in arrears:

Provided that before levying any such penalty, the assessee shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard:

Provided further that where the Income-tax Officer is satisfied that the default was for good and sufficient reasons, no penalty shall be levied under his section".

39. Omission of section 233.—Section 233 of the Income-tax Act shall be omitted.

40. Amendment of section 234.—In section 234 of the Income-tax Act,—

- (a) for the word and figures "section 141", the words, figures and letter "section 141 or section 141A" shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1968;
- (b) the words and figures "section 141 or" shall be omitted.

41. Amendment of section 235.—In section 235 of the Income-tax Act,—

- (a) in sub-clause (ii) of clause (b), for the words "twenty-seven and a half per cent", the words "the amount of income-tax payable by it under this Act" shall be substituted;
- (b) the following Explanation shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, inserted at the end, namely:—

"Explanation.—Where any person other than the shareholder is chargeable to tax under this Act on the dividend referred to in this section, references in section to the shareholder shall be construed as references to such other person."

42. Amendment of section 243.—In section 243 of the Income-tax Act, for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

- "(1) If the income-tax Officer does not grant the refund,—
- (a) in any case where the total income of the assessee does not consist solely of income from interest on securities or dividends, within three months from the end of the month in which the total income is determined under this Act, and
 - (b) in any other case, within three months from the end of the month in which the claim for refund is made under this Chapter, the Central Government shall pay the assessee simple interest at nine per cent per annum on the amount directed to be refunded from the date immediately following the expiry of the period of three months aforesaid to the date of the order granting the refund.

Explanation.—If the delay in granting the refund within the period of three months aforesaid is attributable to the assessee, whether wholly or in part, the period of the delay attributable to him shall be excluded from the period for which interest is payable."

43. Amendment of section 244.—In section 244 of the Income-tax Act,—

- (a) in sub-section (1),—
 - (i) for the words "within a period of six months from the date of such order", the words and figures "within a period of three months from the end of the month in which such order is passed" shall be substituted;
 - (ii) for the words "the period of six months aforesaid", the words "the period of three months of aforesaid" shall be substituted;
- (b) in sub-section (2), for the words and figures "six months from the date of the order referred to in section 241", the words and figures "three months from the end of the month of which the order referred to in section 241 is passed" shall be substituted.

44. Amendment of section 246.—In section 246 of the Income-tax Act, for clause (j), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

- "(j) an order under clause (b) of sub-section (1) or under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) or sub-section (5) of section 185,"

45. Amendment of section 253.—In section 253 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (6), for the words "a fee of rupees one hundred", the words "a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees" shall be substituted.

46. Amendment of section 255.—In section 255 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (3), for the words "twenty-five thousand rupees" the words "forty thousand rupees" shall be substituted.

47. Amendment of section 256.—In section 256 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (1), for the words "a fee of rupees one hundred", the words "a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees" shall be substituted.

48. Amendment of section 271.—In section 271 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (4A), for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided that—

- (i) if in a case the minimum penalty imposable under clause (i) of sub-section (1) for the relevant assessment year, or, where such disclosure relates to more than one assessment year, the aggregate of the minimum penalty imposable under the said clause for those years, exceeds a sum of fifty thousand rupees, or
 - (ii) if in a case falling under clause (c) of sub-section (1), the amount of income in respect of which penalty is imposable for the relevant assessment year, or, where such disclosure relates to more than one assessment year, the aggregate amount of such income for those years, exceeds a sum of five hundred thousand rupees,
- no order reducing or waiving the penalty shall be made by the Commissioner unless the previous approval of the Board has been obtained."

49. Amendment of section 274.—In section 274 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (2), for the words "the minimum penalty imposable exceeds a sum of rupees one thousand", the words and brackets "the amount of income (as determined by the Income-tax Officer on assessment) in respect of which the particulars have been concealed or inaccurate particulars have been furnished exceeds a sum of twenty-five thousand rupees" shall be substituted.

50. Substitution of new section for section 275.—For section 275 of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"275. Bar of limitation for imposing penalties.—No order imposing a penalty under this Chapter shall be passed—

(a) in a case where the relevant assessment or other order is the subject-matter of an appeal to the Appellate Assistant Commissioner under section 246 or an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (2) of section 253, after the expiration of a period of—

(i) two years from the end of the financial year in which the proceedings, in the course of which action for imposition of penalty has been initiated, are completed, or

(ii) six months from the end of the month in which the order of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner or, as the case may be, the Appellate Tribunal is received by the Commissioner, whichever period expires later;

(b) in any other case, after the expiration of two years from the end of the financial year in which the proceedings, in the course of which action for imposition of penalty has been initiated, are completed.

Explanation.—In computing the period of limitation for the purpose of this section, the time taken in giving an opportunity to the assessee to be re-heard under the proviso to section 129 and any period during which a proceeding under this Chapter for the levy of penalty is stayed by an order or injunction of any court shall be excluded."

51. Amendment of section 276.—In section 276 of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) in clause (b), the words, brackets and figures "sub-section (2) of section 139," shall be omitted;

(b) clause (c) shall be omitted.

52. Insertion of new sections 276C and 276D.—After section 276B of the Income-tax, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"276C Failure to furnish returns of income.—If a person wilfully fails to furnish in due time the return of income which he is required to furnish under sub-section (1) of section 139 or by notice given under sub-section (2) of section 139 or section 148 he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine equal to a sum calculated at a rate which shall not be less than four rupees or more than ten rupees for every day during which the default continues, or with both:

Provided that a person shall not be proceeded against under this section for failure to furnish in due time the return of income under sub-section (1) of section 139—

(i) for any assessment year commencing prior to the 1st day of April, 1971; or

(ii) for any assessment year commencing on or after the 1st day of April, 1971, if—

(a) the return is furnished by him before the expiry of the assessment year; or

(b) the tax payable by him on the total income determined on regular assessment, as reduced by the advance tax, if any, paid, and any tax deducted at source, does not exceed three thousand rupees.

276D. Failure to produce accounts and documents.—If a person wilfully fails to produce, or cause to be produced, on or before the date specified in any notice served on him under sub-section (1) of section 142, such accounts and documents as are referred to in the notice, he shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine equal to a sum calculated at a rate which shall not be less than four rupees or more than ten rupees for every day during which the default continues, or with both."

53. Amendment of section 279.—In section 279 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (1), after the words, figures and letter "or section 276B", the words, figures and letter "or section 276C or section 276D" shall be inserted.

54. Amendment of section 280ZA.—In section 280ZA of the Income-tax Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), for the words "public company", the word "company" shall be substituted;

(b) in sub-section (3), for the words "public company" and "such company", the words "company" and "the company" shall, respectively, be substituted.

55. Amendment of section 295.—In section 295 of the Income-tax Act, in sub-section (2),—

(a) after sub-clause (ii) of clause (b), the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(iii) an individual who is liable to be assessed under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 64;"

(b) after clause (k), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(kk) the procedure to be followed in calculating interest payable by assessee or interest payable by Government to assessee under any provision of this Act, including the rounding off of the period for which such interest is to be calculated in cases where such period includes a fraction of a month, and specifying the circumstances in which and the extent to which petty amounts of interest payable by assessee may be ignored;”

56. Amendment of second schedule.—In the Second schedule to the Income-tax Act, in rule 60, in clause (a) of sub-rule (1), for the words “the rate of six per cent per annum”, the words “the rate of nine per cent per annum” shall be substituted.

57. Amendment of Fourth Schedule.—In the Fourth Schedule to the Income-tax Act,—

(a) in Part A, in rule 15, in sub-rule (1), after clause (b) the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(bb) regulating the investment or deposit of the moneys of a recognised provident fund:

Provided that no rule made under this clause shall require the investment of more than fifty per cent of the moneys of such fund in Government Securities as defined in section 2 of the Public Debt Act, 1944 (18 of 1944).”

(b) in Part B, —

(i) in rule 4, in sub-rule (1), for the words “and of the accounts of the fund for the last year for which such accounts have been made up”, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“and, where the fund has been in existence during any year or years prior to the financial year in which the application for approval is made, also two copies of the accounts of the fund relating to such prior year or years (not being more than three years immediately preceding the year in which the said application is made) for which such accounts have been made up”;

(ii) in rule 11, in sub-rule (1), after clause (c), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(cc) regulating the investment or deposit of the moneys of an approved superannuation fund:

Provided that no rule made under this clause shall require the investment of more than fifty per cent of moneys of such fund in Government Securities as defined in section 2 of the Public Debt Act, 1944 (18 of 1944).”

(c) in Part C:—

(i) in rule 4, in sub-rule (1), for the words “and of the accounts of the fund for the last three years for which such accounts have been made up”, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“and, where the fund has been in existence during any year or years prior to the financial year in which the application for approval is made, also two copies of the accounts of the fund relating to such prior year or years (not being more than three years immediately preceding the year in which the said application is made) for which such accounts have been made up”;

(ii) after rule 8, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

“8A. Particulars to be furnished in respect of gratuity funds.—The trustees of an approved gratuity fund and any employer who contributes to an approved gratuity fund shall, when required by notice from the Income-tax Officer, furnish within such period, not being less than twenty-one days from the date of the notice, as may be specified in the notice, such return, statement, particulars or information, as the Income-tax Officer may require.”;

(iii) in rule 9 in sub-rule (1), after clause (b), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(bb) regulating the investment or deposit of the moneys of an approved gratuity fund:

Provided that no rule made under this clause shall require the investment of more than fifty per cent of the moneys of such fund in Government Securities as defined in section 2 of the Public Debt Act, 1944 (18 of 1944).”

AMENDMENTS TO THE WEALTH-TAX ACT, 1957

59. Amendment of section 5.—In section 5 of the Wealth-tax Act, 1957 (27 of 1957), (hereinafter referred to as the Wealth-tax Act), in sub-section (1), after clause (vi), the following clause shall be, and shall be deemed to have been, inserted with effect from the 1st day of April, 1965, namely:—

“(via) the right of the assessee to receive any annuity payable by the Central Government under the provisions of section 280D of the Income-tax Act;”

60. Amendment of section 15B.—In section 15B of the Wealth-tax Act, in sub-section (3), for the words “so, however, that the amount of penalty does not exceed fifty per cent of the amount of such tax or part as the case may be,” the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“and in the case of a continuing failure, such further amount or amounts as the Wealth-tax Officer may from time to time direct, so, however, that the total amount of penalty does not exceed fifty per cent of the amount of such tax or part, as the case may be.”

61. Amendment of section 18.—In section 18 of the Wealth-tax Act,—

(a) in sub-section (2A), the following proviso shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Provided that if in a case falling under clause (c) of sub-section (1) the amount in respect of which penalty is imposed for the relevant assessment year, or where such disclosure relates to more than one assessment year, such amount for any one of the relevant assessment years, exceeds five hundred thousand rupees, no order reducing or waiving the penalty shall be made by the Commissioner unless the previous approval of the Board has been obtained.”

(b) in sub-section (3), for the words “the minimum penalty imposed exceeds a sum of rupees one thousand” the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“the amount (as determined by the Wealth-tax Officer on assessment) in respect of which penalty is imposed under clause (c) of sub-section (1) exceeds a sum of twenty-five thousand rupees”;

(c) for sub-section (5), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(5) No order imposing a penalty under this section shall be passed—

(a) in a case where the assessment to which the proceedings for imposition of penalty relate is the subject-matter of an appeal to the Appellate

Assistant Commissioner under section 23 or an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (2) of section 24, after the expiration of a period of—

(i) two years from the end of the financial year in which the proceedings, in the course of which action for imposition of penalty has been initiated, are completed, or

(ii) six months from the end of the month in which the order of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner or, as the case may be, the Appellate Tribunal is received by the Commissioner, whichever period expires later;

(b) in any other case, after the expiration of two years from the end of the financial year in which the proceedings, in the course of which action for imposition of penalty has been initiated, are completed.

Explanation.—In computing the period of limitation for the purposes of this section, the time taken in giving an opportunity to the assessee to be reheard under the proviso to section 39 and any period during which a proceeding under this section for the levy of penalty is stayed by an order or injunction of any court shall be excluded.”

62. Amendment of section 24.—In section 24 of the Wealth-tax Act, in sub-section (4), for the words “a fee of one hundred rupees”, the words “a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees” shall be substituted.

63. Amendment of section 26.—In section 26 of the Wealth-tax Act, in sub-section (2), for the words “a fee of rupees one hundred”, the words “a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees” shall be substituted.

64. Amendment of section 27.—In section 27 of the Wealth-tax Act, in sub-section (1), for the words “a fee of rupees one hundred” the words “a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees” shall be substituted.

65. Insertion of new sections 44C and 44D.—After section 44B of the Wealth-tax Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“44C. Rounding off net wealth.—The amount of net wealth computed in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Act shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of one hundred rupees and, for this purpose, any part of a rupee consisting of paise shall be ignored and thereafter, if such amount contains a part of one hundred rupees, then, if such part is fifty rupees or more, the amount shall be increased to the next higher amount which is a multiple of one hundred and, if such part is less than fifty rupees, the amount shall be reduced to the next lower amount which is a multiple of one hundred; and the amount so rounded off shall be deemed to be the net wealth of the assessee for the purposes of this Act.

44D. Rounding off tax, etc.—The amount of wealth-tax, interest, penalty, fine or any other sum payable, and the amount of refund due, under the provisions of this Act, shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee and, for this purpose, where such amount contains a part of a rupee consisting of paise, then, if such part is fifty paise or more, it shall be increased to one rupee, and if such part is less than fifty paise, it shall be ignored.”

66. Amendment of section 46.—In section 46 of the Wealth-tax Act, in sub-section (2), after clause (i), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(dd) the procedure to be followed in calculating interest payable by assesseees or interest payable by the Government to assesseees under any provision of this Act, including the rounding off of the period for which such interest is to be calculated in cases where such period includes a fraction of a month, and specifying the circumstances in which and the extent to which petty amounts of interest payable by assesseees may be ignored;”.

CHAPTER IV

AMENDMENTS TO THE GIFT-TAX ACT, 1958

67. Amendment of section 23.—In section 23 of the Gift-tax Act, 1958 (18 of 1958), (hereinafter referred to as the Gift-tax Act), in sub-section (4), for the words “a fee of rupees one hundred”, the words “a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees” shall be substituted.

68. Amendment of section 25.—In section 25 of the Gift-tax Act, in sub-section (2), for the words “a fee of rupees one hundred” the words “a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees” shall be substituted.

69. Amendment of section 26.—In section 26 of the Gift-tax Act, in sub-section (1), for the words “a fee of rupees one hundred”, the words “a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees” shall be substituted.

70. Insertion of new sections 44A and 44B.—After section 44 of the Gift-tax Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:

“44A. Rounding off of taxable gifts.—The amount assessed in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Act as being the value of all taxable gifts shall be rounded off to the nearest multiple of ten rupees and, for this purpose, any part of a rupee consisting of paise shall be ignored and thereafter, if such amount is not a multiple of ten rupee, then, if the last figure in that amount is five or more, the amount shall be increased to the next higher amount which is a multiple of ten and, if the last figure is less than five, the amount shall be reduced to the next lower amount which is a multiple of ten; and the amount so rounded off shall be deemed to be the value of all taxable gifts of the assessee for the purposes of this Act.

44B. Rounding off of tax, etc. The amount of gift-tax, interest, penalty, fine or any other sum payable, and the amount of refund due, under the provisions of this Act, shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee and, for this purpose, where such amount contains a part of a rupee consisting of paise, then, if such part is fifty paise or more, it shall be increased to one rupee, and if such part is less than fifty paise, it shall be ignored.”.

71. Amendment of section 46. In section 46 of the Gift-tax Act, in sub-section (2), after clause (e), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:

(ee) the procedure to be followed in calculating interest payable by assesseees or interest payable by the Government to assesseees under any provision of this Act, including the rounding off of the period for which such interest is to be calculated in cases where such period includes a fraction of a month, and specifying the circumstances in which and the extent to which petty amounts of interest payable by assesseees may be ignored;”.

CHAPTER V

AMENDMENTS TO THE COMPANIES (PROFITS) SURTAX ACT, 1964

72. Amendment of section 12.—In section 12 of the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964 (7 of 1964) [hereinafter referred to as the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act], in sub-section (6), for the words “a fee of one hundred rupees”, the words “a fee of one hundred and twenty-five rupees” shall be substituted.

THE FOREIGN EXCHANGE REGULATION (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1970

(Act No. 43 of 1970)

AN ACT

further to amend the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Foreign Exchange Regulation (Amendment) Act, 1970.

2. Amendment of section 19G.—In section 19G of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947 (7 of 1947) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following Explanation shall be inserted at the end, namely:—

“Explanation.—In computing the period of one year during which a document (hereafter in this Explanation referred to as the said document) may be retained under this section, in any case where by reason of an injunction or order of any court (whether such injunction or order is in relation to the said document or is in relation to any other document referred to which would be necessary for examining or using the said document),—

- (a) the said document could not be examined fully, for the purpose of determining whether it would be evidence of the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, direction or order made thereunder, or
- (b) the said document could not be used for commencing any proceedings under section 23, or
- (c) the proceedings under section 23 could not be commenced, the time of the continuance of the injunction or order, the day on which it was issued or made and the day on which it was withdrawn, shall be excluded.”.

3. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Foreign Exchange Regulation (Amendment) Ordinance, 1970 (5 of 1970), is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act as amended by the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act, as if this Act had come into force on the 20th day of September, 1970.

THE INDIAN MEDICINE CENTRAL COUNCIL ACT, 1970

(Act No. 48 of 1970)

AN

to provide for the constitution of a Central Council of Indian Medicine and the maintenance of a Central Register of Indian Medicine and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Indian Medicine Central Council Act, 1970.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force in a State on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf for such State, and different dates may be appointed for different States and for different provisions of this Act.

2. Definitions.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "approved institution" means a teaching institution, health centre or hospital recognised by a University or Board as an institution in which a person may undergo the training, if any, required by his course of study before the award of any medical qualifications to him;
- (b) "Board" means a Board, Council, Examining Body or Faculty of Indian Medicine (by whatever name called) constituted by the State Government under any law for the time being in force regulating the award of medical qualifications in, and registration of practitioners of, Indian medicine;
- (c) "Central Council" means the Central Council of Indian Medicine constituted under section 3;
- (d) "Central Register of Indian Medicine" means the register maintained by the Central Council under this Act;
- (e) "Indian medicine" means the system of Indian medicine commonly known as Ashtang Ayurveda Siddha or Unani Tibb whether supplemented or not by such modern advances as the Central Council may declare by notification from time to time;
- (f) "medical institution" means any institution within or without India which grants degrees, diplomas or licences in Indian medicine;
- (g) "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations;
- (h) "recognised medical qualification" means any of the medical qualifications, including post-graduate medical qualification, of Indian medicine included in the Second, Third or Fourth Schedule;

- (i) "regulation" means a regulation made under section 36;
- (j) "State Register of Indian Medicine" means a register or registers maintained under any law for the time being in force in any State regulating the registration of practitioners of Indian medicine;
- (k) "University" means any University in India established by law and having a Faculty of Indian Medicine and includes a University in India established by law in which instruction, teaching, training or research in Indian medicine is provided.

(2) Any reference in this Act to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.

CHAPTER II

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL AND ITS COMMITTEES

3. Constitution of Central Council.—(1) The Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute for the purposes of this Act a Central Council consisting of the following members, namely:—

- (a) such number of members not exceeding five as may be determined by the Central Government in accordance with the provisions of the First Schedule for each of this Ayurveda, Siddha and Unani systems of medicine from each State in which a State Register of Indian Medicine is maintained, to be elected from amongst themselves by persons enrolled on that Register as practitioners of Ayurveda, Siddha or Unani, as the case may be;
- (b) one member for each of the Ayurveda, Siddha and Unani systems of medicine from each University to be elected from amongst themselves by the members of the Faculty or Department (by whatever name called) of the respective system of medicine of that University;
- (c) such number of members, not exceeding thirty per cent of the total number of members elected under clauses (a) and (b), as may be nominated by the Central Government, from amongst persons having special knowledge or practical experience in respect of Indian medicine:

Provided that until members are elected under clause (a) or clause (b) in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, the Central Government shall nominate such number of members, being persons qualified to be chosen as such under the said clause (a) or clause (b), as the case may be, as that Government thinks fit; and references to elected members in this Act shall be construed as including references to members so nominated.

(2) The President of the Central Council shall be elected by the member of the Central Council from amongst themselves in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) There shall be a Vice-President for each of the Ayurveda, Siddha and Unani systems of medicine who shall be elected from amongst themselves by members representing that system of medicine, elected under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) or nominated under clause (c) of that sub-section.

4. Mode of election.—(1) An election under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 3 shall be conducted by the Central Government in accordance with such rules as may be made by it in this behalf.

(2) Where any dispute arises regarding any election to the Central Council, it shall be referred to the Central Government whose decision shall be final.

5. Restriction on elections and membership.—(1) No person shall be eligible for election to the Central Council unless he possesses any of the medical qualifications included in the Second, Third or Fourth Schedule, is enrolled on any State Register of Indian Medicine and resides in the State concerned.

(2) No person may at the same time serve as a member in more than one capacity.

6. Incorporation of Central Council.—The Central Council shall be a body corporate by the name of the Central Council of Indian Medicine having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable and to contract and shall by the said name sue and be sued.

7. Term of office of President, Vice-President and members of Central Council.—(1) The President, a Vice-President or a member of the Central Council shall hold office for a term of five years from the date of his election or nomination, as the case may be, or until his successor shall have been duly elected or nominated, whichever is longer.

(2) An elected or nominated member shall be deemed to have vacated his seat if he is absent without excuse, sufficient in the opinion of the Central Council, from three consecutive ordinary meetings of the Central Council or, in the case of a member elected under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3, if he ceases to be enrolled on the concerned State Register of Indian Medicine, or in the case of a member elected under clause (b) of that sub-section, if he ceases to be member of the Faculty or Department (by whatever name called) of Indian Medicine of the University concerned.

(3) A casual vacancy in the Central Council shall be filled by election or nomination, as the case may be, and the person elected or nominated to fill the vacancy shall hold office only for the remainder of the term for which the member whose place he takes was elected or nominated.

(4) Members of the Central Council shall be eligible for re-election or re-nomination.

(5) Where the said term of five years is about to expire in respect of any member, as successor may be elected or nominated at any time within three months before the said term expires but he shall not assume office until the said term has expired.

8. Meetings of Central Council.—(1) The Central Council shall meet at least once in each year at such time and place as may be appointed by the Central Council.

(2) Unless otherwise prescribed, one-third of the total number of members of the Central Council shall form a quorum, and all the acts of the Central Council shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting.

Provided that no decision of the Central Council in relation to any Indian medicine shall be effective unless three members representing Ayurveda, Siddha or Unani system of medicine, as the case may be, are present at the meeting and support the decision.

9. Committees for Ayurveda, Siddha and Unani.—

(1) The Central Council shall constitute from amongst its members,

- (a) a committee for Ayurveda;
- (b) a committee for Siddha; and
- (c) a committee for Unani, and each such committee shall consist of members elected under clause (a) or clause (b) or nominated under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 3 representing the Ayurveda, Siddha or Unani system of medicine, as the case may be.

(2) The Vice-President for each of the Ayurveda, Siddha and Unani systems of medicine elected under sub-section (3) of section 3 shall be, respectively, the Chairman of the committees referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1).

(3) Subject to such general or special directions as the Central Council may from time to time give, each such committee shall be competent to deal with any matter relating to Ayurveda, Siddha or Unani system of medicine, as the case may be, within the competence of the Central Council.

10. Other committees.—The Central Council may constitute from amongst its members such other committees for general or special purposes as the Central Council deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act.

11. Meetings of committees.—(1) The committees constituted under sections 9 and 10 shall meet at least once in each year at such time and place as may be appointed by the Central Council.

(2) Unless otherwise prescribed, one-third of the total number of members of a committee shall form a quorum, and all the acts of the committee shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting.

12. Officers and other employees of Central Council.—The Central Council shall—

(a) appoint a Registrar who shall act as Secretary and who may also, if deemed expedient, act as Treasurer;

(b) employ such other persons as it deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act;

(c) require and take from the Registrar, or from any other employees, such security for the due performance of his duties as the Central Council deems necessary; and

(d) with the previous sanction of the Central Government, fix the remuneration and allowances to be paid to the President, Vice-President and members of the Central Council and to the Members of the committees thereof and determine the conditions of service of the employees of the Central Council.

13. Vacancies in the Central Council and committees thereof not to invalidate acts, etc.—No act or proceeding of the Central Council or any committee thereof shall be called in question on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or any defect in the constitution of, the Central Council or the committee, as the case may be.

CHAPTER III

RECOGNITION OF MEDICAL QUALIFICATIONS

14. Recognition of medical qualifications granted by certain medical institutions in India.—(1) The medical qualifications granted by any University, Board or other medical institution in India which are included in the Second Schedule shall be recognised medical qualifications for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Any University, Board or other medical institution in India which grants a medical qualification not included in the Second Schedule may apply to the Central Government to have any such qualification recognised, and the Central Government, after consulting the Central Council, may, by notification in the Official Gazette amend the Second Schedule so as to include such qualification therein, and any such notification may also direct that an entry shall be made in the last column of the Second Schedule against such medical qualification declaring that it shall be a recognised medical qualification only when granted after a specified date.

15. Recognition of medical qualifications granted by certain medical institutions whose qualifications are not included in Second Schedule.—The medical qualifications included in the Third Schedule granted to a citizen of India before the 15th day of August, 1947, by any medical institution in any area which was comprised before that date within India as defined in the Government of India Act, 1935, shall also be recognised medical qualifications for the purposes of this Act.

16. Recognition of medical qualifications granted by medical institutions in countries with which there is a scheme of reciprocity.—(1) The medical qualifications granted by medical institutions outside India which are included in the Fourth Schedule shall be recognised medical qualifications for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Central Council may enter into negotiations with the authority in any State or country outside India, which by the law of such State or country is entrusted with the maintenance of a Register of practitioners of Indian medicine, for the settling of a scheme of reciprocity for the recognition of medical qualifications in India medicine, and in pursuance of any such scheme, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Fourth Schedule so as to include therein any medical qualification which the Central Council has decided should be recognised, and any such notification may also direct that an entry shall be made in the last column of the Fourth Schedule against such medical qualification declaring that it shall be recognised medical qualification only when granted after a specified date.

17. Rights of persons possessing qualifications included in Second, Third and Fourth Schedules to be enrolled.—

(1) Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, any medical qualification included in the Second, Third or Fourth Schedule shall be sufficient qualification for enrolment on any State Register of Indian Medicine.

(2) Save as provided in section 28, no person other than a practitioner of Indian medicine who possesses a recognised medical qualification and is enrolled on a State Register or the Central Register of Indian Medical Medicine,—

(a) shall hold office as Vaid, Siddha, Hakim or physician or any other office (by whatever designation called) in Government or in any institution maintained by a local or other authority;

(b) shall practise Indian medicine in any State;

(c) shall be entitled to sign or authenticate a medical or fitness certificate or any other certificate required by any law to be signed or authenticated by a duly qualified medical practitioner;

(d) shall be entitled to give evidence at any request or in any court of law as an expert under section 45 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872), on any matter relating to Indian medicine.

(3) Nothing contained in sub-section (2) shall affect,—

(a) the right of a practitioner of Indian medicine enrolled on a State Register of Indian Medicine to practise Indian medicine in any State merely on the ground that, on the commencement of the Act, he does not possess a recognised medical qualification;

(b) the privileges (including the right to practise any system of medicine) conferred by or under any law relating to registration of practitioners of Indian medicine for the time being in force in any State on a practitioner of Indian medicine enrolled on a State Register of Indian Medicine;

(c) the right of a person to practise Indian medicine in a State in which, on the commencement of the Act, a State Register of Indian Medicine is not maintained if, on such commencement, he has been or practising Indian medicine for not less than five years;

(d) the rights conferred by or under the Indian Medical Council Act, 1956 (102 of 1956) (including the right to practise medicine as defined in clause (f) of section 2 of the said Act), on persons possessing any qualifications included in the Schedules to the said Act.

(4) Any person who acts in contravention of any provision of sub-section (2) shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

18. Power to require information as to courses of study and examinations.—Every University, Board or medical institution in India which grants a recognised medical qualification shall furnish such information as the Central Council may, from time to time, require as to the courses of study and examinations to be undergone in order to obtain such qualification, as to the age at which such courses of study and examinations are required to be undergone and such qualification is conferred and generally as to the requisites for obtaining such qualification.

19. Inspectors at examinations.—(1) The Central Council shall appoint such number of medical inspectors as it may deem requisite to inspect any medical college, hospital or other institution where education in Indian medicine is given, or to attend any examination held by any University, Board or medical institution for the purpose of recommending to the Central Government recognition of medical qualifications granted by the University, Board or medical institution.

(2) The medical inspectors shall not interfere with the conduct of any training or examination, but shall report to the Central Council on the adequacy of the standard of education including staff, equipment, accommodation, training and other facilities prescribed for giving education in Indian medicine or on the sufficiency of every examination which they attend.

(3) The Central Council shall forward a copy of any such report to the University, Board or medical institution concerned, and shall also forward a copy with the remarks of the University, Board or medical institution thereon, to the Central Government.

20. Visitors at examinations.—(1) The Central Council may appoint such number of visitors as it may deem requisite to inspect any medical college, hospital or other institution where education in Indian medicine is given or to attend any examination for the purpose of granting recognised medical qualifications.

(2) Any person, whether he is a member of the Central Council or not, may be appointed as a visitor under this section but a person who is appointed as an inspector under section 19 for any inspection or examination shall not be appointed as a visitor for the same examination.

(3) The visitors shall not interfere with the conduct of any training or examination, but shall report to the President of the Central Council on the adequacy of the standards of education including staff, equipment, accommodation, training and other facilities prescribed for giving education in Indian medicine or on the efficiency of every examination which they attend.

(4) The report of a visitor shall be treated as confidential unless in any particular case the President of the Central Council otherwise directs:

Provided that if the Central Government requires a copy of the report of a visitor, the Central Council shall furnish the same.

21. Withdrawal of recognition.—(1) When upon report by the inspector or the visitor, it appears to the Central Council—

(a) that the courses of study and examination undergone in, or the proficiency required from candidates at any examination held by, any University, Board or medical institution, or

(b) that the staff, equipment, accommodation, training and other facilities for instruction and training provided in such University, Board or medical institution or in any college or other institution affiliated at the University, do not conform to the standard prescribed by the Central Council, the Central Council shall make a representation to that effect to the Central Government.

(2) After considering such representation, the Central Government may send it to the Government of the State in which the University, Board or medical institution is situated and the State Government shall forward it along with such remarks as it may choose to make to the University, Board or medical institution, with an intimation of the period within which the University, Board or medical institution may submit its explanation to the State Government.

(3) On the receipt of the explanation or, where no explanation is submitted within the period fixed, then, on the expiry of that period, the State Government shall make its recommendations to the Central Government.

(4) The Central Government, after making such further inquiry, if any, as it may think fit, may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that an entry shall be made in the appropriate Schedule against the said medical qualification declaring that it shall be a recognised medical qualification only when granted before a specified date, or that the said medical qualification granted to students of a specified college or institution affiliated to any University shall be recognised medical qualification only when granted before a specified date or, as the case may be, that the said medical qualification shall be recognised medical qualification in relation to a specified college institution affiliated to any University only when granted after a specified date.

22. Minimum standards of education in Indian Medicine.—(1) The Central Council may prescribe the minimum standards of education in Indian medicine, required for granting recognised medical qualifications by Universities, Boards or medical institutions in India.

(2) Copies of the draft regulations and of all subsequent amendments thereof shall be furnished by the Central Council to all State Governments and the Central Council shall, before submitting the regulations to any Government, take into consideration the comments of any State Government received.

within three months from the furnishing of the copies as aforesaid.

(3) Each of the Committees referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 9 shall, from time to time, report to the Central Council on the efficacy of the regulations and may recommend to the Central Council such amendments thereof as it may think fit.

CHAPTER IV

THE CENTRAL REGISTER OF INDIAN MEDICINE

23. The Central Register of Indian Medicine.—(1) The Central Council shall cause to be maintained in the prescribed manner, a register of practitioners in separate parts for each of the system of Indian medicine to be known as the Central Register of Indian Medicine which shall contain the names of all persons who are for the time being enrolled on any State Register of Indian Medicine and who possess any of the recognised medical qualifications.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Registrar of the Central Council to keep and maintain the Central Register of Indian medicine in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of any orders made by the Central Council and from time to time to revise the register and publish it in the Gazette of India and in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(3) Such register shall be deemed to be a public document within the meaning of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872), and may be proved by a copy published in the Gazette of India.

24. Supply of copies of State Register of Indian medicine.—Each Board shall supply to the Central Council three printed copies of the State Register of Indian Medicine as soon as may be after the Commencement of this Act and subsequently after the first day of April of each year, and each Board shall inform the Central Council without delay of all additions to or other amendments in the State Register of Indian Medicine made from time to time.

25. Registration in the Central Register of Indian Medicine.—The Registrar of the Central Council may on receipt of the report of registration of a person in a State Register of Indian Medicine or on application made in the prescribed manner by any person, enter his name in the Central Register of Indian Medicine, provided that the Registrar is satisfied that the person concerned is eligible under this Act for such registration.

26. Professional conduct.—(1) The Central Council may prescribe standards of professional conduct and etiquette and a code of ethics for practitioners of Indian medicine.

(2) Regulations made by the Central Council under sub-section (1) may specify which violations thereof shall constitute infamous conduct in any professional respect, that is to say, professional mis-conduct, and such provision shall have effect notwithstanding any thing contained in any law for the time being in force.

27. Removal of names from the Central Register of Indian Medicine.—(1) If the name of any person enrolled on a State Register of Indian Medicine is removed therefrom in pursuance of any power conferred by or under any law relating to registration of practitioners of Indian medicine for the time being in force in any State, the Central Council shall direct the removal of the name of such person from the Central Register of Indian Medicine.

(2) Where the name of any person has been removed from a State Register of Indian Medicine on any ground other than that he is not possessed of the requisite medical qualifications or where any application by the said person for restoration of his name to the State Register of Indian Medicine has been rejected, he may appeal in the prescribed manner and subject to such conditions, including conditions as to the payment of a fee, as may be prescribed, to the Central Government whose decision, which shall be given after consulting the Central Council, shall be binding on the State Government and on the authorities concerned with the preparation of the State Register of Indian Medicine.

28. Provisional registration for practice.—If the courses of study to be undergone for obtaining a recognised medical qualification in Indian medicine include a period of training after a person has passed the qualifying examination and before such qualification is conferred on him, any such person shall, on application made by him in this behalf, be granted provisional registration in a State Register of Indian Medicine by the Board concerned in order to enable him to practise Indian medicine in an approved institution for the purpose of such training and for no other purpose for the period aforesaid.

29. Privileges of persons who are enrolled on the Central Register of Indian Medicine.—Subject to the conditions and restrictions laid down in this Act regarding practice of Indian medicine by persons possessing certain recognised medical qualifications, every person whose name is for the time being borne on the Central Register of Indian Medicine shall be entitled according to his qualifications practise Indian medicine in any part of India and to recover in due course of law in respect of such practice any expenses, charges in respect of medicaments or other appliances or any fees to which he may be entitled.

30. Registration of additional qualifications.—(1) If any person whose name is entered in the Central Register of Indian Medicine obtains any title, diploma or other qualification for proficiency in Indian medicine which is a recognised medical qualification, he shall, on application made in this behalf in the prescribed manner, be entitled to have an entry stating such other title, diploma or other qualification made against his name in the Central Register of Indian Medicine either in substitution for or in addition to any entry previously made.

(2) The entries in respect of any such person in a State Register of Indian Medicine shall be altered in accordance with the alterations made in the Central Register of Indian Medicine.

31. Persons enrolled on Central Register of Indian Medicine to notify change of place of residence and practice.—Every person registered in the Central Register of Indian Medicine shall notify any transfer of the place of his residence or practice to the Central Council and to the Board concerned, within ninety days of such transfer, failing which his right to participate in the election of members to the Central Council or a Board shall be liable to be forfeited by order of the Central Government either permanently or for such period as may be specified therein.

CHAPTER V MISCELLANEOUS

32. Information to be furnished by Central Council and publication thereof.—(1) The Central Council shall furnish such reports, copies of its minutes, abstracts of its accounts, and other information to the Central Government as that Government may require.

(2) The Central Government may publish in such manner as it may think fit, any report, copy, abstract or other information furnished to it under this section or under section 20.

33. Commission of inquiry.—(1) Whenever it is made to appear to the Central Government that the Central Council is not complying with any of the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may refer the particulars of the complaint to a commission of inquiry consisting of three persons, two of whom shall be appointed by the Central Government, one being a Judge of a High Court, and one by the Central Council and such commission shall proceed to inquire in a summary manner and to report to the Central Government as to the truth of the matters charged in the complaint, and in case of any charge of default or of improper action being found by the commission to have been established, the commission shall recommend the remedies, if any, which are in its opinion necessary.

(2) The Central Government may require the Central Council to adopt the remedies so recommended within such time as, having regard to the report of the commission, it may think fit, and if the Central Council fails to comply with any such requirement, the Central Government may amend the regulations of the Central Council, or make such provision or order or take such other steps as may seem necessary to give effect to the recommendations of the commission.

(3) A commission of inquiry shall have power to administer oaths, to enforce the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and shall have all such other necessary powers for the purpose of any inquiry conducted by it as are exercised by a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 (5 of 1908).

34. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government, the Central Council or a Board or any Committee thereof or any officer or servant of the Government or the Central Council or the Board aforesaid for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

35. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

36. Power to make regulations.—The Central Council may, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, make regulations generally to carry out the purposes of this Act, and, without prejudice to the generality of this power, such regulations may provide for—

(a) the manner of election of the President and the Vice-Presidents of the Central Council;

- (b) the management of the property of the Central Council and the maintenance and audit of its accounts;
- (c) the resignation of members of the Central Council;
- (d) the powers and duties of the President and Vice-President;
- (e) the summoning and holding of meetings of the Central Council and the committees thereof, the times and places where such meetings are to be held, and the conduct of business thereat and the number of members necessary to constitute a quorum;
- (f) the functions of the committees constituted under section 9 or section 10;
- (g) the tenure of office, and the powers and duties of the Registrar and other officers and servants of the Central Council;
- (h) the appointment, powers, duties and procedure of inspectors and visitors;
- (i) the courses and period of study and of practical training to be undertaken, the subject of examination and the standards of proficiency therein to be obtained, in any University, Board or medical institutions for grant of recognised medical qualifications;
- (j) the standards of staff, equipment, accommodation, training and other facilities for education in Indian medicine;
- (k) the conduct of professional examinations, qualifications of examiners and the conditions of admission to such examinations;
- (l) the standards of professional conduct and etiquette and code of ethics to be observed by practitioners of Indian medicine;
- (m) the particulars to be stated, and the proof of qualifications to be given in applications for registration under this Act;
- (n) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which an appeal under section 27 may be preferred;

(o) the fees to be paid on applications and appeals under this Act; and

(p) any matter for which under this Act provision may be made by regulations.

THE CONTRACT LABOUR (REGULATION AND ABOLITION) ACT, 1970

ACT No. 37 of 1970

AN

to regulate the employment of contract labour in certain establishments and to provide for its abolition in certain circumstances and for matters connected therewith.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-five Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent, commencement and application.—This Act may be called the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act.

(4) It applies—

(a) to every establishment in which twenty or more workmen are employed or were employed on any day of the preceding twelve months as contract labour;

(b) to every contractor who employs or who employed on any day of the preceding twelve months twenty or more workmen.

Provided that the appropriate Government may, after giving not less than two months' notice of its intention so to do, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply the provisions of this Act to any establishment or contractor employing such number of workmen less than twenty as may be specified in the notification.

(5) (a) It shall not apply to establishments in which work only of an intermittent or casual nature is performed.

(b) If a question arises whether work performed in an establishment is of an intermittent or casual nature, the appropriate Government shall decide that question after consultation with the Central Board or, as the case may be, a State Board, and its decision shall be final.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section, work performed in an establishment shall not be deemed to be of an intermittent nature—

(i) if it was performed for more than one hundred and twenty days in the preceding twelve months, or

(ii) if it is of a seasonal character and is performed for more than sixty days in a year.

2. Definitions.—(1) this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “appropriate Government” means,—

(1) in relation to—

(i) any industry any establishment pertaining to carried on by or under the authority of the Central Government, or pertaining to any such controlled industry as may be specified in this behalf by the Central Government, or

(ii) any establishment of any railway, Cantonment Board, major port, mine oil-field, or

(iii) any establishment of a banking or insurance company,

the Central Government,

(2) in relation to any other establishment, the Government of the State in which that other establishment is situated;

(b) a workman shall be deemed to be employed as “contract labour” in or in connection with the work of an establishment when he is hired in or in connection with such work by or through a contractor, with or without the knowledge of the principal employer;

(c) “contractor”, in relation to an establishment, means a person who undertakes to produce a given result for the establishment, other than a mere supply of goods or articles of manufacture to such establishment, through contract labour or who supplies contract labour for any work of the establishment and includes a sub-contractor;

- (d) "controlled industry" means any industry the control of which by the Union has been declared by any Central Act to be expedient in the public interest;
- (e) "establishment" means—
- (i) any office or department of the Government or a local authority, or
 - (ii) any place where any industry, trade, business, manufacture or occupation is carried on;
- (f) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;
- (g) "principal employer" means—
- (i) in relation to any office or department of the Government or a local authority, the head of that office or department or such other officer as the Government or the local authority, as the case may be, may specify in this behalf,
 - (ii) in a factory, the owner or occupier of the factory and where a person has been named as the manager of the factory under the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948), the person so named,
 - (iii) in a mine, the owner or agent of the mine and where a person has been named as the manager of the mine, the person so named,
 - (iv) in any other establishment any person responsible for the supervision and control of the establishment.
- Explanation.*—For the purpose of sub-clause (iii) of this clause, the expressions "mine", "owner" and "agent" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clause (j), clause (f) and clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Mines Act, 1952, (35 of 1952).
- (h) "wages" shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (vi) of section 2 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, (4 of 1936),
- (i) "workmen" means any person employed in or on connection with the work of any establishment to do any skilled, semi-skilled or unskilled manual, supervisory technical, or clerical work for hire or reward, whether the terms of employment be express or implied, but does not include any such person—

(A) who is employed mainly in a managerial or administrative capacity; or

(B) who, being employed in a supervisory capacity draws wages exceeding five hundred rupees per mensem or exercises, either by the nature of the duties attached to the office or by reason of the powers vested in him, functions mainly of a managerial nature; or

(C) who is an out-worker, that is to say, a person to whom any articles or materials are given out by or on behalf of the Principal employer to be made up, cleaned, washed, altered, ornamented, finished, repaired, adapted or otherwise processed for sale for the purposes of the trade or business of the principal employer and the process is to be carried out either in the home of the out-worker or in some other premises, not being premises under the control and management of the principal employer.

(2) Any reference in this Act to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.

CHAPTER II THE ADVISORY BOARDS

3. Central Advisory Board.—(1) The Central Government shall, as soon as may be, constitute a board to be called the Central Advisory Contract Labour Board (hereinafter referred to as the Central Board) to advise the Central Government on such matters arising out of the administration of this Act as may be referred to it and to carry out other functions assigned to it under this Act.

(2) The Central Board shall consist of—

- (a) a Chairman to be appointed by the Central Government;
- (b) the Chief Labour Commissioner (Central), ex-officio;
- (c) such number of members, not exceeding seventeen but not less than eleven, as the Central Government, may nominate to represent that Government, the Railways, the coal industry, the mining industry, the contractors, the workmen and any other interests which, in the opinion of the Central Government, ought to be represented on the Central Board.

(3) The number of persons to be appointed as members from each of the categories specified in sub-section (2), the term of office and other conditions of service of, the procedure to be followed in the charge of their functions and the manner of filling vacancies among, the members of the Central Board shall be such as may be prescribed:

Provided that the number of members nominated to represent the workmen shall not be less than the number of members nominated to represent the principal employers and the contractors.

4. State Advisory Board.—(1) The State Government may constitute a board to be called the State Advisory Contract Labour Board (hereinafter referred to as the State Board) to advise the State Government on such matters arising out of the administration of this Act as may be referred to it and to carry out other functions assigned to it under this Act.

(2) The State Board shall consist of—

- (a) a Chairman to be appointed by the State Government;
- (b) the Labour Commissioner, ex-officio, or in his absence any other officer nominated by the State Government in that behalf;
- (c) such number of members, not exceeding eleven but not less than nine, as the State Government may nominate to represent that Government, the industry, the contractors, the workmen and any other interest which, in the opinion of the State Government, ought to be represented the State Board.

(3) The number of persons to be appointed as members from each of the categories specified in sub-section (2), the term of office and other conditions of service of, the procedure to be followed in the discharge of their functions by, and the manner of filling vacancies among, the members of the State Board shall be such as may be prescribed:

Provided that the number of members nominated to represent the workmen shall not be less than the number of members nominated to represent the principal employers and the contractors.

5. Power to constitute committees.—(1) The Central Board or the State Board, as the case may be, may constitute such committees and for such purpose or purposes as it may think fit.

(2) The committee constituted under sub-section (1) shall meet at such times and places and shall observe such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at its meetings as may be prescribed.

(3) The members of a committee shall be paid such fees and allowances for attending its meetings as may be prescribed:

Provided that no fees shall be payable to a member who is an officer of Government or of any corporation established by any law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER III

REGISTRATION OF ESTABLISHMENTS EMPLOYING

CONTRACT LABOUR

6. Appointment of registering Officers.—The appropriate Government may, by an order notified in the Official Gazette—

(a) appoint such persons, being Gazetted Officers of Government, as it thinks fit to be registering officers for the purposes of this Chapter; and

(b) define the limits, within which a registering officer shall exercise the powers conferred on him by or under this Act.

7. Registration of certain establishments.—(1) Every principal employer of an establishment to which this Act applies shall, within such period as the appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix in this behalf with respect to establishments generally or with respect to any class of them, make an application to the registering officer in the prescribed manner for registration of the establishment:

Provided that the registering officer may entertain any such application for registration after expiry of the period fixed in this behalf, if the registering officer is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application in time.

(2) If the application for registration is complete in all respects, the registering officer shall register the establishment and issue to the principal employer of the establishment a certificate of registration containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

8. Revocation of registration in certain cases.—If the registering officer is satisfied, either on a reference made to him in this behalf or otherwise, that the registration of any establishment has been obtained by misrepresentation or suppression of any material fact, or that for any other reason the registration as become useless or ineffective and, therefore, requires, to be revoked, the registering officer may, after giving an opportunity to the principal employer of the establishment to be heard and with the previous approval of the appropriate Government, revoke the registration.

9. Effect of non-registration.—No principal employer of an establishment, to which this Act applies, shall—

(a) in the case of an establishment required to be registered under section 7, but which has not been registered within the time fixed for the purpose under that section,

(b) in the case of an establishment the registration in respect of which has been revoked under section 8, employ contract labour in the establishment after the expiry of the period referred to in clause (a) or after the revocation of registration referred to in clause (b), as the case maybe.

10. Prohibition of employment of contract labour.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act the appropriate Government may after consultation with the Central Board or, as the case may be, a State Board, prohibit, by notification in the Official Gazette, employment of contract labour in any process, operation or other work in any establishment.

(2) Before issuing any notification under sub-section (1) in relation to an establishment, the appropriate Government shall have regard to the conditions of work and benefits provided for the contract labour in that establishment and other relevant factors, such as—

(a) whether the process, operation or other work is incidental to, or necessary for the industry, trade, business, manufacture or occupation that is carried on in the establishment;

(b) whether it is of perennial nature, that is to say, it is of sufficient duration having regard to the nature of industry, trade, business, manufacture or occupation carried on in that establishment;

(c) whether it is done ordinarily through regular workmen in that establishment or an establishment similar thereto;

(d) whether it is sufficient to employ considerable number of whole-time workmen.

Explanation.—If a question arises whether any process or operation or other work is of perennial nature, the decision of the appropriate Government thereon shall be final.

CHAPTER IV

LICENSING OF CONTRACTORS

11. Appointment of licensing officers.—The appropriate Government may, by an order notified in the Official Gazette, —

- (a) appoint such persons, being Gazetted Officers of Government, as it thinks fit to be licensing officers for the purposes of this Chapter; and
- (b) define the limits, which a licensing officer shall exercise the powers conferred on licensing officers by or under this Act.

12. Licensing of contractors.—(1) With effect from such date as the appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint, no contractor to whom this Act applies, shall undertake or execute any work through contract labour except under and in accordance with a licence issued in that behalf by the licensing officer.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a licence under sub-section (1) may contain such conditions including, in particular, conditions as to hours of work, fixation of wages and other essential amenities in respect of contract labour as the appropriate Government may deem fit to impose in accordance with the rules, of any, made under section 35 and shall be issued on payment of such fees and on the deposit of such sum, if any, as security for the due performance of the conditions as may be prescribed.

13. Grant of licences.—(1) Every application for the grant of a licence under sub-section (1) of section 12 shall be made in the prescribed form and shall contain the particulars regarding the location of the establishment, the nature of process, operation or work for which contract labour is to be employed and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) The licensing officer may make such investigation in respect of the application received under sub-section (1) and in making any such investigation the licensing officer shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed.

(3) A licence granted under this Chapter shall be valid for the period specified therein and may be renewed from time to time for such period and on payment of such fees and on such conditions as may be prescribed.

14. Revocation, suspension and amendment of licences.—(1) If the licensing officer is satisfied, either on a reference made to him in this behalf or otherwise, that—

- (a) a licence granted under section 12 has been obtained by misrepresentation or suppression of any material fact, or
- (b) the holder of a licence has, without reasonable cause, failed to comply with the conditions subject to which the licence has been granted or has contravened any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

then, without prejudice to any other penalty to which the holder of the licence may be liable under this Act, the licensing officer may, after giving the holder of the licence an opportunity of showing cause revoke or suspend the licence or forfeit the sum, if any, or any portion thereof deposited as security for the due performance of the conditions subject to which the licence has been granted.

(2) Subject to any rules that may be made in this behalf, the licensing officer may vary or amend a licence granted under section 12.

15. Appeal.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order made under section 7, section 8, section 12 or section 14 may, within thirty days from the date on which the order is communicated to him, prefer an appeal to an appellate officer who shall be a person nominated in this behalf by the appropriate Government:

Provided that the appellate officer may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(2) On receipt of an appeal under sub-section (1), the appellate officer shall, after giving the appellant an opportunity of being heard dispose of the appeal as expeditiously as possible.

CHAPTER V

WELFARE AND HEALTH OF CONTRACT LABOUR

16. Canteens.—(1) The appropriate Government may make rules requiring that in every establishment—

- (a) to which this Act applies,
- (b) wherein work requiring employment of contract labour is likely to continue for such period as may be prescribed, and
- (c) wherein contract labour numbering one hundred or more is ordinarily employed by a contractor, one or more canteens shall be provided and maintained by the contractor for the use of such contract labour.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

- (a) the date by which the canteens shall be provided;
- (b) the number of canteens that shall be provided and the standards in respect of construction, accommodation, furniture and other equipment of the canteens; and
- (c) the foodstuffs which may be served therein and the charges which may be made therefor.

17. Rest-rooms.—(1) In every place wherein contract labour is required to halt at night in connection with the work of an establishment—

- (a) to which this Act applies, and
 - (b) in which work requiring employment of contract labour is likely to continue for such period as may be prescribed,
- there shall be provided and maintained by the contractor for the use of the contract labour such number of rest-rooms or such other suitable alternative accommodation within such time as may be prescribed.

(2) The rest-rooms or the alternative accommodation to be provided under sub-section (1) shall be sufficiently lighted and ventilated and shall be maintained in a clean and comfortable condition.

18. Other facilities.—It shall be the duty of every contractor employing contract labour in connection with the work of an establishment to which this Act applies, to provide and maintain—

- (a) a sufficient supply of wholesome drinking water for the contract labour at convenient places;
- (b) a sufficient number of latrines and urinals of the prescribed types so situated as to be convenient and accessible to the contract labour in the establishment; and
- (c) washing facilities.

19. First-aid facilities.—There shall be provided and maintained by the contractor so as to be readily accessible during all working hours a first-aid box equipped with the prescribed contents at every place where contract labour is employed by him.

20. Liability of principal employer in certain cases.—

(1) If any amenity required to be provided under section 16, section 17, section 18 or section 19 for the benefit of the contract labour employed in an establishment is not provided by the contractor within the time prescribed therefor, such amenity shall be provided by the principal employer within such time as may be prescribed.

(2) All expenses incurred by the principal employer in providing the amenity may be recovered by the principal employer from the contractor either by deduction from any amount payable to the contractor under any contract or as a debt payable by the contractor.

21. Responsibility for payment of wages.—(1) A contractor shall be responsible for payment of wages to each worker employed by him as contract labour and such wages shall be paid before the expiry of such period as may be prescribed.

(2) Every principal employer shall nominate a representative duly authorised by him to be present at the time of disbursement of wages by the contractor and it shall be the duty of such representative to certify the amounts paid as wages in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) It shall be the duty of the contractor to ensure the disbursement of wages in the presence of the authorised representative of the principal employer.

(4) In case the contractor fails to make payment of wages within the prescribed period or makes short payment, then the principal employer shall be liable to make payment of wages in full or the unpaid balance due, as the case may be, to the contract labour employed by the contractor and recover the amount so paid from the contractor either by deduction from any amount payable to the contractor under any contract or as a debt payable by the contractor.

CHAPTER VI

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE

22. Obstructions.—(1) Whoever obstructs an inspector in the discharge of his duties under this Act or refuses or wilfully neglects to afford the inspector any reasonable facility for making any inspection, examination, inquiry or investigation authorised by or under this Act in relation to an establishment to which, or a contractor to whom, this Act applies, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(2) Whoever wilfully refuses to produce on the demand of an inspector any register or other document kept in pursuance of this Act or prevents or attempts to prevent or does any thing which he has reason to believe is likely to prevent any person from appearing before or being examined by an inspector acting in pursuance of his duties under this Act, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

23. Contravention of provisions regarding employment of contract labour.—Whoever contravenes any provision of this Act or of any rules made thereunder prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment of contract labour, or contravenes any condition of a licence granted under this Act, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both, and in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

24. Other offences.—If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or of any rules made thereunder for which no other penalty is elsewhere provided, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

25. Offences by companies.—(1) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, the company as well as every person in charge of, and responsible to, the company, for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, managing agent or any other officer of the company, such director, manager, managing agent or such other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—for the purpose of this section—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director", in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

26. Cognizance of offences.—No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act except on a complaint made by, or with the previous sanction in writing of, the inspector and no court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate or a magistrate of the first class shall try any offence punishable under this Act.

27. Limitation of prosecutions.—No court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under this Act unless the complaint thereof is made within three months from the date on which the alleged commission of the offence came to the knowledge of an inspector.

Provided that where the offence consists of disobeying a written order made by an inspector, complaint thereof may be made within six months of the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

28. Inspecting Staff.—(1) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be inspectors for the purposes of this Act, and define the local limits within which they shall exercise their powers under this Act.

(2) Subject to any rules made in this behalf, an inspector may, within the local limits for which he is appointed—

- (a) enter, at all reasonable hours, with such assistance (if any), being persons in the service of the Government or any local or other public authority as he thinks fit, any premises or place where contract labour is employed, for the purpose of examining any register or record or notices required to be kept or exhibited by or under this Act or rules made thereunder, and require the production thereof for inspection;
- (b) examine any person whom he finds in any such premises or place and who, he has reasonable cause to believe, is a workman employed therein;
- (c) require any person giving out work and any workman to give any information, which is in his power to give with respect to the names and addresses of the persons to, for and from whom the work is given out or received, and with respect to the payments to be made for the work;
- (d) seize or take copies of such register, record of wages or notices or portions thereof as he may consider relevant in respect of an offence under this Act which he has reason to believe has been committed by the principal employer or contractor; and
- (e) exercise such other powers as may be prescribed.

(3) Any person required to produce any document or thing or to give any information required by an inspector under sub-section (2) shall be deemed to be legally bound to do so within the meaning of section 175 and section 176 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

(4) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), shall so far as may be, apply to any search or seizure under sub-section (2) as they apply to any search or seizure made under the authority of a warrant issued under section 98 of the said Code.

29. Registers and other records to be maintained.—(1) Every principal employer and every contractor shall maintain such registers and records giving such particulars of contract labour employed, the nature of work by the contract labour, the rates of wages paid to the contract labour and such other particulars in such form as may be prescribed.

(2) Every principal employer and every contractor shall keep exhibited in such manner as may be prescribed within the premises of the establishment where the contract labour is employed, notices in the prescribed form containing particulars about the hours of work, nature of duty and such other information as may be prescribed.

30. Effect of laws and agreements inconsistent with this Act.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law or in the terms of any agreement or contract of service, or in any standing orders applicable to the establishment whether made before or after the commencement of this Act:

Provided that where under any such agreement, contract of service or standing orders the contract labour employed in the establishment are entitled to benefits in respect of any matter which are more favourable to them than those to which they would be entitled under this Act, the contract labour shall continue to be entitled to the more favourable benefits in respect of that matter, notwithstanding that they receive benefits in respect of other matters under this Act.

(2) Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as precluding any such contract labour from entering into an agreement with the principal employer or the contractor, as the case may be, for granting them rights or privileges in respect of any matter which are more favourable to them than those to which they would be entitled under this Act.

31. Power to exempt in special cases.—The appropriate Government may, in the case of an emergency, direct, by notification in the Official Gazette, that subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, and for such period or periods, as may be specified in the notification, all or any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall not apply to any establishment or class of establishments or any class of contractors.

32. Protection of action taken under this Act.—(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any registering officer, licensing officer, or any other Government servant or against any member of the Central Board or the State Board, as the case may be, for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Government for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

33. Power to give directions.—The Central Government may give directions to the Government of any State as to the carrying into execution in the State of the provisions contained in this Act.

34. Power to remove difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

35. Power to make rules.—(1) The appropriate Government may, subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the number of persons to be appointed as members representing various interests on the Central Board and the State Board, the term of their office and other conditions of service, the procedure to be followed in the discharge of their functions and the manner of filling vacancies;

- (b) the times and places of the meetings of any committee constituted under this Act, the procedure to be followed at such meetings including the quorum necessary for the transaction of business, and the fees and allowances that may be paid to the members of a committee;
 - (c) the manner in which establishments may be registered under section 7, the levy of a fee therefor and the form of certificate of registration;
 - (d) the form of application for the grant or renewal of a licence under section 13 and the particulars it may contain;
 - (e) the manner in which an investigation is to be made in respect of an application for the grant of a licence and the matters to be taken into account in granting or refusing a licence;
 - (f) the form of a licence which may be granted or renewed under section 12 and the conditions subject to which the licence may be granted or renewed, the fees to be levied for the grant or renewal of a licence and the deposit of any sum as security for the performance of such conditions;
 - (g) the circumstances under which licences may be varied or amended under section 14;
 - (h) the form and manner in which appeals may be filed under section 15 and the procedure to be followed by appellate officers in disposing of the appeals;
 - (i) the time within which facilities required by this Act to be provided and maintained may be so provided by the contractor and in case of default on the part of the contractor, by the principal employer;
 - (j) the number and types of canteens, rest-rooms, latrines and urinals that should be provided and maintained;
 - (k) the type of equipment that should be provided in the first-aid boxes.
 - (l) the period within which wages payable to contract labour should be paid by the contractor under sub-section (1) of section 21;
 - (m) the form of registers and records to be maintained by principal employers and contractors;
 - (n) the submission of returns, forms in which, and the authorities to which, such returns may be submitted;
 - (o) the collection of any information or statistics in relation to contract labour; and
 - (p) any other matter which has to be, or may be, prescribed under this Act.
- (3) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the should rule not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.
